OUR MISSION

Ante Up, YOUR Poker Magazine, is dedicated to everyday poker players and their poker rooms.

That's peculiar

Poker is peculiar. ... or at least the world of poker is. Many people choose New Year's Day to reflect on the past and look to the future. Businesses generally use a fiscal year to review their endeavors and plan a budget sometime in the fall. But poker is different.

We in the poker industry like to use the beginning of the World Series of Poker in Las Vegas to have such thoughts, especially this year as it's the 50th annual WSOP.

It's only natural. Thousands upon thousands of rounders make the trek to the desert each summer with dreams of world titles in the heads and visions of cash mountains for their bankrolls.

If you've never been to Las Vegas during this time of year, we highly recommend it. The city is abuzz with poker players spilling into casinos at a record pace and you are never lacking for a cash game or tournament, whatever your limit.

Yet, it's usually now when people often ask us if we think poker is on the decline. Funny, no one ever asks us if poker is growing. Perhaps it's because poker isn't ubiquitous on television anymore. Maybe it's that online poker saw such a sharp decline after Black Friday in 2011. Or it could be that the occasional poker room closes to make more space for those cold-hearted slot machines.

Whatever the reason, the queries always seem to center around the demise of poker. So, do we think poker is on the decline?

Instead of giving you our answer here, why not look at our special WSOP-plus preview on Pages 8-11? After looking at the major series that run SIMULTANEOUSLY in one city ... in the desert ... in the summer, you tell us. Is poker on the way out? What a peculiar question.

We'll see you at the tables.

ARE YOU READY?

The 50th annual World Series of Poker has arrived at the Rio in Las Vegas, but it's not alone.

By Christopher Cosenza

Could Benny Binion, the late Las Vegas casino owner and accomplished poker player, have envisioned this in 1970? Absolutely.

When Binion launched the first World Series of Poker at his casino, Binion's Horseshoe, 50 years ago, it was a series of cash games in a number of disciplines and the winner, the legendary Johnny Moss, was elected by his peers as the first World Champion of poker. The next year introduced the freezeout tournament format we all know now, and the buy-in, as it still is today, was $10K. Binion never got to see the poker boom, dying in 1989, but given his penchant for innovation and the grandiose, you can bet he wouldn't be surprised by the enormity of poker these days or that his WSOP creation is celebrating its Golden Anniversary this summer through July 16.

Caesars Entertainment, in a nod to Binion and the series' roots, will have $1M in cash on display at the tournament entrance at the Rio, something Binion's Horseshoe did for years. But that isn't the only change in store for the WSOP this year.

To help celebrate the 50th WSOP, Caesars is giving away $50K in main-event seats as tournament players can earn five entries into a July 1 drawing for the five seats. Players can get an entry by swiping their Caesars Rewards card at the rewards desk. They also can earn additional entries by entering bracelet events.

As for the series, there are a few new things, too. There will be 20 events with a buy-in of at least $10K, including the latest craze, the WSOP's first Short Deck no-limit hold'em event, which costs $10K and is a four-day event that begins June 2 at 6 p.m. Short Deck means all deuces through fives are removed, leaving a 36-card deck.

Another nod to the 50th anniversary will be $50K NLHE four-day tournament where players start with 300K chips and hour-long levels. This event starts May 31.

Other tourneys include the return of the $1,111 Little One for One Drop (July 6), the $1.5K bracelet-winners-only event (July 10), the $1.5K Millionaire Maker (June 7) and the $400 Colossus (June 26). As for the granddaddy of them all, the $10K main event, it runs

July 3-16 with three starting flights (July 3-5).

New to the main this year is the increased starting stack of 60K chips, the big-blind ante format and the ability for players to buy in as late as the start of play on Day 2.

For more information on the 89-event series, go to wsop.com.

But spending the summer in the desert isn't just about the World Series. Yes, every poker series and basically every card-room in Las Vegas owes a debt of gratitude to Binion and his cohorts, but that doesn't mean they haven't earned their spot in poker lore with their creativity and massive achievements.

Aria

Golden Nugget

On Pages 10-11, we have published a poker calendar not seen in any other poker publication: a day-by-day compiling of every major series running in Las Vegas from June 1 until July 28.

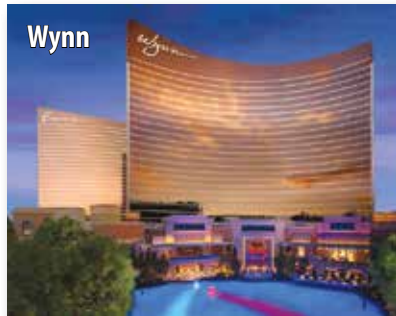

Binion's Gambling Hall, the Aria, Planet Hollywood, Venetian Las Vegas, the Wynn, the Orleans and the Golden Nugget have series scheduled.

The Binion's Summer Series runs June 1-July 1 and has increased buy-ins on many events, including some at $550 and $1,100. If non-hold'em is your jam, then Binion's is your stop as it continues to offer plenty of stud and Omaha in its offerings.

The Aria Poker Classic is June 2-July 14, with tournaments at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. most days. As part of the Classic, the WPT500 will run June 21-27.

Planet Hollywood hosts its Phamous Poker Series Goliath through July 16 and features a $1,700 main event with a $1M guarantee. Including in the series is the July 5 Charity Series of Poker's $300 tournament with $100 rebuys.

The Venetian's popular DeepStack series ends July 28 as the 10-week DeepStack Championship Poker Series has more than $24M in guarantees across 116 events. There are 15 megasatellites throughout the series.

Wynn

The Wynn's Summer Classic is May 30-July 16, including a $1,600 main event (July 11-15) that has a $2M guarantee.

Like Binion's, the Orleans Summer Poker Series has plenty of non-hold'em events, running until July 7. Most days will feature two one-day tournaments (11 a.m., 6 p.m.), but the Orleans also hosts the LIPS and Senior Poker Tour as part of its series.

The Golden Nugget's Grand Poker Series spreads probably the most affordable events with most buy-ins in the $120-$250 range. This series ends July 8 and has the occasional non-hold'em contest. The largest guarantee of this series, a $600 NLHE affair, is a $600K tourney that has three starting flights (June 27-29). All of the schedules for these fine series can be found on Pages 10-11, with just starting days and sans satellites.

Binion's

Venetian Las Vegas

Planet Hollywood

Orleans

Here is a look at the major series this summer (June 1-July 28) in Las Vegas. We didn't include satellites or Day 2s, Day 3s, etc. As always, these events are subject to change, so be sure to check with the appropriate poker room before making your plans. All events are NLHE unless noted.

JAMUL, AAPT JOIN FOR SOCIAL EVENT

Jamul Casino near San Diego will be the first Southern California poker room to host an Ante Up Poker Tour series Sept. 20-29.

Details will be announced when finalized, but Jamul Casino opened its poker room in grand style in February with a star-studded affair that featured a $550 Golden Cap bounty tournament with poker stars Tiffany Michelle, Erick Lindgren, Norman Chad and more.

"Jamul Casino is thrilled to be the first San Diego poker room to partner with the Ante Up Poker Tour," poker room manager John Rochfort said.

Jamul Casino, owned by the Jamul Indian Village of California, is 20 minutes from San Diego and features seven restaurants, more than 1,700 slot machines, 40 tables games and a 10-table poker room with full bar service, tableside dining and incredible views of the nearby countryside.

"Anyone who was on hand for the grand-opening spectacle knows that Jamul Casino knows how to throw a party, and we're looking forward to introducing the Ante Up Poker Tour to Southern California in that amazing environment," Ante Up's Scott Long said. "I've known John Rochfort for a long time and players who travel to Jamul for this series will be treated to a first-class event."

In the meantime, see the ad on our back cover for details on the Sweetwater Series, which runs June 21-23 and includes a $50K guarantee and big celebrity bounties.

OCEAN'S 11: Adam Weinraub beat nearly 730 entries to win the San Diego Classic. The 2007 World Poker Tour Celebrity Invitational champion earned $32,212, bringing his career tournament earnings to $730,877.

At the final table, the Orange, Calif., resident was wearing a shirt emblazoned with the title of the movie he produced, Walk to Vegas. The movie was co-written by WPT commentator Vince Van Patten, who stars in the film.

Weinraub was one of the 51 direct entries into Day 2 for $1,500. The Day 2 players joined the 677 entries made over the six starting flights to build a final prize pool of $201,700, which was awarded to the top 98 finishers.

A number of big names made it to the final table, including 2014 WPT Legends of Poker runner-up Mike Eskandari. He finished sixth for $7,320. Bicycle Casino tournament director Mo Fathipour, who pioneered the Quantum Tournament format that this tournament used, finished fifth for $9,500.

BICYCLE CASINO: The WSOPC visits twice in the upcoming season: Nov. 30-Dec. 11 and March 7-18.

MEET THOMAS KORNECHUK

Thomas Kornechuk won January's World Series of Poker Circuit's main event at Thunder Valley Casino Resort for $193K. The Auburn, Wash., player recently started taking poker seriously and he beat 600-plus entrants in the $1,700 event.

How did you get into poker? I got started in poker after I quit my job at AT&T Labs. I've watched so much poker on TV and just loved it and wanted to get into it.

How did you improve your game and apply it to your WSOPC victory? I've followed a few different coaches. I've studied a lot of scenarios with them. I've read books about mental preparedness, specifically poker, and I've tried to apply that. My plan this time was to be conservative as much as possible and apply pressure when I saw openings to do so. I was looking for a couple of tells that I saw. I attacked those. I think that's what changed for me.

Most memorable poker experience? Best experience so far is for sure this Thunder Valley main event. I've won little tournaments in the past and when I've done that I've just been in the zone. This tournament was just like that for me; I was in the zone. — Philip Chow

PECHANGA RESORT CASINO: The semi-monthly Tournament of Champions has a $2K guarantee. The events (June 9 and 23) are open to players who cash in one of Pechanga's weekly tournaments. June 29 will be a $50K guarantee deepstack with a $240 buy-in.

"My staff and I have worked extensively on creating the ideal tournament setting for our players and along with our popular daily tournaments, we take pride in giving all of our players plenty of options," assistant director of poker Richie Lopez said.

Every week, Pechanga offers tournaments with a minimum of $41K in guarantees. These include a weekly Saturday morning event featuring a $20K guarantee. They also include the popular bounty tournaments.

As for promotions, Pechanga offers daily bonuses and specials ranging from hourly cash drawings for $500 every Friday (1-6 p.m.) to hourly high hands. Also, don't forget about its breakfast club, which treats those who play for an hour between 5-8 a.m. to free breakfast. For more information, go to pechanga.com.

MIRAGE THRIVING ON LAS VEGAS STRIP

The Mirage, the popular room in the center of the Las Vegas Strip, runs four tournaments a day. Monday through Thursday at 11 a.m., it's a $65 buy-in with a 10K stack and 20-minute levels. The $120 Stack runs at the same time Friday through Sunday, with 25K stacks and 25-minute levels.

That identical $65 tournament runs Friday through Tuesday at 2 p.m. It also runs Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday at 7 p.m. The other afternoons and evenings, a $100 bounty event runs, with a 15K stack, 25-minute levels and a $25 bounty.

Nightly at 11, a $40 tourney is offered. Players start with 5K chips and play 20-minute levels. There are $25 rebuys available for 2,500 chips for the first three levels. At the end of the third level, players are allowed a $25 add-on for 2,500 regardless of the size of their stack.

The Mirage is one of the few places left where you can play limit on the Strip. A $3-$6 game runs most of the time, with a $30 minimum buy-in. Several tables of $1-$2 NLHE always run, with a $100-$300 min-max.

Promos include Aces Cracked, where the first six cracked each day (starting at 8 a.m.) earn $100 each. Progressive quads start at $100 for each rank and increase $25 daily until hit. Once a rank hits, future quads of that rank earn $50. High hands of the hour run twice daily (5-9 a.m. and 5-9 p.m.). The prize is $100 and it rolls over if it isn't hit. A full house or better is needed to qualify. Starting at 9 a.m. daily, $100 SNGs are offered with two places paid.

VENETIAN LAS VEGAS: Benjamin Ector of Las Vegas won $39K for topping a field of 450 players in the $600 Monster Stack at the Deep Stack Extravaganza in April. Kfir Nahum, also from Vegas, took home $34K as runner-up and Alfredo Leonidas from Southern California earned $30K for third. The prize pool for the $600 event was $228K.

A few days later, there was a $250 event with five starting flights. It went to Tony Gordy of Los Angeles for $37K. Florida's Vitaly Shafran earned $24K for second and Turkey's Onur Unsal earned $17K for third. A field of 1,200 players resulted in a $244K prize pool.

The next cash-game promo begins July 22 and runs through August. Every day between noon and midnight, the high hand of the half-hour will receive $600. If, during that half hour, a player matches the high hand exactly, that player will win $1K.

WYNN: Eric Blair won the $1,100 event at the Signature Series in late April, earning $35K. Robert Mantin took second for $21K and Robert Cone finished third for $13K. The prize pool was $112K and there were 114 players. All three players hail from Vegas.

SOUTH POINT: There's plenty of time to qualify for the $210K Summer Freeroll. Players need 120 hours of live play by July 31 to claim a seat. The first-place prize is $40K and everyone receives $120 just for qualifying. Players receive bonuses for additional hours played.

The room spreads $1-$2 NLHE with a $100-$300 min-max. Equally popular is a $2-$4 limit game with a $20 minimum. Promos include high hands and the Fully Loaded Flush Fridays promo. Players who make a seven-card flush receive a progressive jackpot that starts at $500 and increases $250 each week it's not hit.

The room recently revised its tournament schedule. Daily at 10 a.m., there's a $60 tournament. Players start with 10K chips and play 20-minute levels. It has a $1,200 guarantee.

The 2 p.m. slot features hold'em only once a week, on Saturdays. The Stamina Tournament has a $150 buy-in and a 20K stack. The levels are 30 minutes.

The rest of the week that slot is filled with an $80 tournament. Tuesdays and Thursdays, the game is Omaha/8. Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays it's no-limit crazy pineapple. Both tourneys feature a 10K stack and 20-minute levels.

On Sundays, Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, the 6 p.m. offering is a $100 tournament with a 10K stack, 20-minute levels and a $1,500 guarantee. Wednesdays and Sundays, it's a $125 deepstack with 15K chips and 20-minute levels. The Wednesday version has a $7,500 guarantee and the guarantee on Saturday is $10K. The Saturday night $200 megastack tournament has 20K stacks and 20-minute levels.

BALLY'S: The main event at the WSOPC in April saw 600-plus players compete for a $920K prize pool. Brooklyn's Asher Conniff took home the ring and the first-place prize of $193K. Hawaii's Joshua Suyat claimed $119K for second and Vegas resident Justin Young earned $87K for third.

GREEN VALLEY RANCH: The locals casino just started spreading a $1-$3 NLHE game in addition to its $1-$2 game. The new game has a fixed $300 buy-in. The $1-$2 game has a $100-$300 min-max. There are usually a couple of games of each going during regular hours. There are several $2-$4 limit games going, too, with a $20 minimum. This game has a half-kill.

The newest promo in the room is Poker Pay Day. Players who play between 20-29 hours in a week receive $100. Players who clock 30 hours or more in the same period earn $200.

BELLAGIO: Bellagio Cup XV runs July 6-14.

PEPPERMILL CASINO: Daniel O'Brien won the $600 Run It Up Main Event for $46,681. Loren Klein was second for $30,950 and Austin Roberts finished third ($22,180). Run It Up returns Oct. 11-21.

GRAND SIERRA: There's a free players buffet in the room daily at 2 p.m. and 10 p.m. You can earn $2 per hour in comps for live play and there's free-play earnings for Club Grand members. See a poker supervisor for details.

ATLANTIS CASINO RESORT SPA: There's a $20 daily tournament at 11 a.m. (registration begins at 9). Players start with 3K chips and can add 1K with a $5 dealer add-on. If you play at least one hour of cash games within 24 hours of the start of each tournament, you'll receive 2K more. Also, there's a $10 rebuy for 3K or a $15 rebuy for 5K when you're at or 1K chips or less through Level 4. You can pay a $10 add-on for 5K more chips at the end of Level 4 regardless of stack size.

TALKING STICK STAYS BUSY IN ARIZ.

June has many tournaments on the schedule at Talking Stick Resort in Scottsdale, Ariz. The Big Stack is June 1, followed by a bounty event June 8 and the End of the Month tourney is June 29. Meanwhile, June 2, 9, 15, 16, 22 and 23 will be $160 events. June 30 will be a $140 satellite for the Arizona State Championship, which runs Aug. 9-13 this year.

March's $160 End of the Month tourney had 483 players and ended with 12 players taking home $3,447 each. The April 6 Big Stack had 289 players pay $345 and Toby Price won the title for $19,609. Bjorn Rieger of Germany was second ($12,405) and Steven Stowe finished third ($8,526).

Gordon Gradinscak earned $3,411 after taking down the April 20 bounty event as a 13-player deal paid $1,500 each.

The Getaway Classic, which is a series of three tournaments over the span of a weekend, was April 12-14. John Cammarano outlasted 270 players to capture the opening $200 event for $6,873. Huy Le took home the trophy in the $300 tourney for $20,650. The series ended with a $300 bounty event that Jose Cordova of Texas won, toppling nearly 280 players for $7,276.

As for promotions, Wacky Wednesdays will be June 5 and 19. Call for details.

HON-DAH CASINO RESORT: The latest Tournament of Champions winner is Charles Kane. Also, the Pinetop property is hosting a June 10 satellite for the Arizona State Championship in August and the annual tag-team tournament is June 28.

BUCKY'S CASINO: Monsoon Madness for Cash qualifying begins June 1 and runs through Aug. 23. Players win rewards for live play, possibly $500. Call for details.

GILA RIVER VEE QUIVA: Hockey Splash Pot games and Hot Seat Giveaways highlight promos this month. Memorabilia includes pucks and sticks; check with the room for dates and times.

GILA RIVER WILD HORSE PASS: See the ad on Page 7 for details on the $200 June 15 Tag Team event.

TEXAS

KOJACK'S POKER CLUB: The West Texas Championship still was running at press time so look for a recap in an upcoming issue.

CELEBRITY CARD CLUB: The Odessa room recently hosted ex-world champ Chris Moneymaker and his tourney series as 226 entrants played in a $100 tag-team event. The team of Marty Kunz and Moneymaker won the event. Rudy Bourg captured the $350 Congress tournament and Josh Wimberly took down the heads-up title.

MEET ANTHONY (BART) BOGARD

Bart Bogard, from Wylie, Texas, is driven and focused. Though he is intent on his goals, he's never too serious to have a good time along the way. He's made many friends and is well-regarded on the circuit. In less than three years, his earnings are near $300K. He's made multiple final tables and first-place finishes, but his sight was set on winning his first ring. That win came in November during the World Series of Poker Circuit in Oklahoma and a mere six weeks later he won his second.

You've had a great season what do you attribute to this success? I've been playing for a few years, but I built my roofing company to a point where I've been able to focus on bigger tournaments.

How much time do you devote to tournaments? I play every weekend and when the WSOP or WPT make local stops I play the whole series. I want to keep the momentum going.

What are your long-term goals as a player? I wanted that first ring for quite a while, now that I can scratch that off my list, I'm focusing on my first six-figure cash.

How do you enjoy spending your time away from the felt? I like fishing and hunting, pretty much anything outdoors.

— Megan Moore

The main event saw 160 entries and Clyde Hinton took home $24K when his K-Q bested Billy Ward's pocket 10s.

POKER RAID: The Harris County district attorney's office and Houston police raided two clubs, Post Oak Poker Club and Prime Social Club, and filed charges.

This raid occurred at the same time HB 2669 was in committee of the Legislature. The bill would clarify the legality and allow for licensing of poker clubs and unify the varying legal opinions. The legislative session was scheduled to end after press time, so check back next month for an update.

KANSAS

HOLLYWOOD CASINO KANSAS SPEEDWAY: High Hand rollover runs daily in this 12-table room. There are a variety of games here, including a $25-$50 mixed game on Tuesdays at 1.

KANSAS STAR CASINO: The bad-beat jackpot was $111K at press time. Looking ahead, July 6 is the annual Firecracker $10K guarantee.

The $150 Last Saturday of the Month deepstack is June 29 at 1 as players receive 15K chips and 20-minute levels.

Play cash games and Climb Your Way to a Cash Reward of $30 to $300. Also, look for daily splash pots (9:45 a.m.-12:15 p.m.). The room also pays high hands (quads or better) and every day the first nine players seated and playing by 10 a.m. with a minimum $40 buy-in get $20. Players also can earn 1K in bonus chips for two hours of live play before the start of tournaments.

ISLETA CASINO: Daily tournaments ($10-$50) start at 2 or 7 p.m. The room will host its $1K tournament June 29 at 5. The buy-in is $100 (15K chips, 20-minute levels) and the room is adding $1K to the prize pool. Players can earn a seat by winning a $50 satellite June 1, 8, 15 or 22 at 7 p.m.

SANDIA CASINO: The room will have Sunrise Slot Free Play (Sunday-Thursday, 8-10 a.m.) in June. Any player who buys in for $50 during that time will earn $10 in free slot play for one hour of consecutive play. The room will pay high hands (both hole cards must play) starting at quads.

All tournaments start at 7 p.m. Monday is the $45 Sprint (4,500 chips); Tuesday is $65 (6,500 chips); Wednesday's Dash for Cash is $35 (3,500 chips); Thursday is a $75 bounty (7,500 chips, $25 bounties); Friday is More Bang For Your Buck for $100 (10K chips), and Sunday at noon is $50 (5K chips). The first Saturday of each month is a women's event for $60 (6K chips).

ROUTE 66 CASINO: Daily $28 tournaments with a $5 add-on run at noon, 3 and 7. The events on Monday, Wednesday and Friday pay bounties. There's also tournament bad-beat jackpot for all events.

Aces Cracked pays $50 for same-color pocket aces losing and $25 for mixed aces.

OKLAHOMA-MISSOURI

AMERISTAR: Players earn $1 an hour comps with a $15 food voucher for four consecutive hours of play in this 13-table room. Promotions include a variety of mini-bad-beats, earning the loser a minimum of $250.

CHEROKEE CASINO WEST SILOAM SPRINGS: This eight-table poker room is open 24 hours, hosts daily tournaments and has a quads-or-better progressive jackpot. The Cherokee Poker Classic 29-event began May 5-6. Final results were not available at press time, but Ricky Gebhart of Siloam Springs took down the $150 kickoff event, beating 50-plus players for $2,850. Check back for a recap in the next issue.

CHOCTAW CASINO DURANT: The 26-table poker room spreads a variety of games and hosts tournaments throughout the week. The World Poker Tour visited in late May, but results weren't

EMERALD TITLE IN N. FLA. IS VLAD'S

Vlad Smoliakov of Panama City, Fla., has captured the Emerald Coast Spring Classic Main Event title at Ebro Greyhound Park. In addition to the emerald-and-diamond bracelet, Smoliakov took home $20K in a three-player agreement. There were 375 entries over four days to push the $75K guarantee to a $93,750 prize pool. Day 2 started with 88 players returning and the other events in the series all exceeded their guarantees, too.

As for dailies, the Tuesday and Saturday night events have been eliminated.

CREEK GREYHOUND: Clarence Pinkard won the title and $4,140 in the April $10K, a tourney that paid eight spots.

The next $10K will cost $270 and will be June 22 at 1 p.m. A $2K for $60 is June 8 and a $5K for $120 is June 28. Satellites into the $10K are Thursdays and select Saturdays and Sundays. Call for details and times.

ORANGE CITY RACING AND CARD CLUB: In addition to NLHE, OCRCC daily spreads $1-$2 PLO ($100-$500 min-max) and $5-$5 PLO ($300-$1K). Some evenings a $10-$25 PLO runs ($3K min-no max) and on weekends Big O and $2-$5 Omaha/8 may run if there's interest.

Tournaments are Monday and Tuesday nights. June 14 a $1,220 No Rake World Series of Poker Main Event qualifier, sending one of every 10 entries to Las Vegas with a $10K seat plus $2K for expenses.

DAYTONA RACING AND CARD CLUB: Juan Montes De Oca has been named poker room manager. June 2 is a $10K event for $100. A GAPT $30K with five Day 1s will run June 20-23 for $200. See the ad on Page 27. A $20K for $250 is June 30 and there's a June 9 WSOP qualifier at noon.

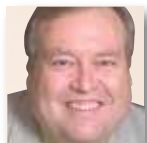

April tournament results included a four-way chop of the $20K between James Gavin, Andrew Mockler, Jami Lind and Lanie Allison as each earned just short of $5K after beating a field of nearly 150. The $30K drew 214 entries and went to Aran Kongmuang, who pocketed $6,177. Rod Neubauer was second ($3,900).

PENSACOLA GREYHOUND TRACK: Shawnee Shelley won the April $20K for $4,950. The next $20K is June 25-27. This event has three Day 1s and then finishes with Day 2 on June 28.

Friday and Saturday nights at 7 are $2K guarantees for $60. Wednesdays feature a $2.5K and satellites into the $20K run Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Sunday afternoons and evenings. Finally, a $60 Omaha/8 tourney runs June 15 at 1.

BESTBET JACKSONVILLE: The April $200 event drew 557 entries

MEET ERIC STEINBAUGH

Jacksonville's Eric Steinbaugh likes his seat on both sides of the table. As a poker dealer at bestbet Jacksonville, he has a passion for poker and adventure. As a player, he won the Great American Poker Tournament's $75K Blizzard event in Daytona for $10,913, which will help finance his worldly travels.

How are you able to find time to travel? I took a year off to visit some exotic places. I've run with the bulls in Pamplona, viewed Sweden by dogsled, kissed the Blarney Stone in Ireland, watched the Northern Lights dance in the skies of Norway, hiked on Mount Hua in China and visited Thailand. I've always had a zest for experiencing other cultures and ways of life.

Do you prefer dealing or playing? I love them both, the interactions with players is always entertaining. As a player, deciphering the story of each hand is challenging. As a dealer, in addition to running the table, I follow each pot with a player's mentality. I enjoy the game so much that if I'm not playing or dealing, I'm probably watching poker on TV.

Anything else? I'm grateful to my former employers at Daytona Beach for teaching me volumes on the management side of a poker room and to bestbet for the respect they show their employees. — Crash Martin and amassed a prize pool of $89,120. Greg Robinson and Qi You, both of Jacksonville, chopped as 60 spots were paid. Robinson was declared the champion.

MISSOURI

Maurice Hawkins earned his 12th WSOPC ring after topping a field of 391 entries in the $600 NLHE Event 4 at Harrah's Cherokee in March, earning him $44,297.

The 39-year-old pro, who is from St. Louis but lives in West Palm Beach, Fla., made three more final tables at the WSOPC event at the Tulsa Hard Rock in March, including a third-place finish in the $1,700 main event for $97,110. There, he was crowned casino champion, earning him a spot into the $1M freeroll later this year. But he wasn't done after Cherokee. Read how he set the rings record in our Mississippi report.

LUMIERE PLACE: There's a $1-$2 ($5 to bring it in, $100-$700 buy-in) pot-limit Omaha game running just about every night around 5:30. The game is action-packed and it goes all night.

HAWKINS HEATER CONTINUES IN MS.

Maurice Hawkins is no stranger to raising the bar. His most recent win in Tunica, Miss., at the Horseshoe's World Series of Poker Circuit separates him further from the competition. The Florida pro won a record-breaking 13th gold ring in the Monster Stack event, surpassing Valentin Vornicu on the leaderboard for the most rings. The next closest contender is Robert Hankins with nine.

With almost $4M in lifetime earnings, Hawkins has been a consistent force in the poker world for more than a decade.

This isn't the first time Hawkins has held the record for most circuit rings. He lost the title to Vornicu but managed to tie him just three weeks before this Tunica win, when he picked up his 12th ring at Harrah's Cherokee. For more on that, see our Missouri and North Carolina reports.

The 39-year-old said he has made a "lot of effort to play better and focus more." It paid off as he overcame a 432-entry field in the $400 Monster Stack to find himself heads-up with Hamid Izadi of Atlanta.

"I really want to value the blessings I have," he said. "I have the ability to play poker for a living, so I'm working on being a better person on and off the felt and it's translating all over."

At press time, this WSOPC event still was running so check back next month for a recap.

SOUTH FLORIDA

HARD ROCK HOLLYWOOD: For the first time in its nine-year history, the World Poker Tour's Seminole Hard Rock Showdown didn't play to its conclusion in April. Thanks to the WPT's initiative this season, the final table was moved to the HyperX ESports Arena at the Luxor in Las Vegas on May 30. The event will be shown later in the year on Fox Sports Network.

James Carroll carried the lead, 18M chips, into that final table, almost 2M ahead of the pro Maria Ho. Carroll controlled most of the action on the playdown to the final table and looked to put his name on the WPT Champions Cup for the second time, as he captured the Bay 101 title in 2014.

Ho earned Broadcaster of the Year at the Global Poker Awards in early April and one month earlier, she took down the $25K high roller at the LAPC.

Ami Alibay of Montreal was in third (8M-plus) and another Montreal resident, two-time WPT champion Eric Afriat, had 4.4M. Afriat won this event in 2014. Rounding out the final table as the two short stacks were a pair of South Florida residents, Chad Eveslage of Ft. Lauderdale and ex-November Niner Jerry Wong of Davie.

CENTRAL FLORIDA

HARD ROCK TAMPA: The bad-beat jackpot recently hit for $297,612. Local player Pablo Silva's royal flush beat a player with quad 10s and he earned $74K. The "loser" got $148,806 and the other players at the table each received $14,881.

The WPT DeepStacks Series visits June 5-19 with $1M-plus in guarantees. Satellites are available for $100.

MELBOURNE GREYHOUND TRACK: Club 52 is offering the Great

Give-a-way on June 20, paying $7,500 to the highest hand (2-8 p.m.), in addition to the $300 high hand every 30 minutes.

The first Saturday of the month (June 1) is a $10K guarantee for $130 at noon. The last Friday of the month (June 28) is a $70 Omaha-PLO/8 tournament at 11 a.m.

See the ad on Page 26 or visit mgpark.com.

OXFORD DOWNS: The poker room daily spreads $1-$2 NLHE with a $60-$200 min-max, $2-$4 limit and $2-$5 NLHE with a $200-$1K min-max, plus a $5-$5 Big O game that has a $200-$1K min-max on Fridays.

SARASOTA KENNEL CLUB: One-Eyed Jacks poker room recently held its $500 Spring Fling, drawing 188 players for a prize pool of $84,600. Randy Spain, Matt Kerley, Barry Stulberg, Harry Pinkham and Carlos Mendez chopped $56,800.

Cash games offered here are $1-$2 NLHE ($60-$200 min-max), $1-$3 NLHE ($100-$300), $2-$4 limit ($20 min.), $2-$5 NLHE ($200-$1K) and a $1-$2-$5 PLO game ($200-$1K) runs most Fridays.

LOUISIANA

L'AUBERGE CASINO BATON ROUGE: The bad-beat jackpot hadn't hit in almost two years, then it hit twice in three days. The first was more almost $500K and the second one was for $120K-plus. Now, there's a mini-bad-beat jackpot (aces full of jacks) that pays 10 percent of the total jackpot. Also, look for Aces Cracked on Thursdays for $100 and $100 hourly high hands Monday and Wednesday.

HARRAH'S CASINO NEW ORLEANS: The bad-beat jackpot (quad fives) was $205K at press time. This property pays high hands and even has Aces Cracked in Omaha games for $100 at select times. Call for more information.

BOOMTOWN CASINO NEW ORLEANS: The new qualifier for the bad beat is aces full of jacks. Other promotions are aces progressive, splash the pot and Aces Cracked.

COUSHATTA CASINO: The mini-bad-beat jackpot pays $2,500 and the main jackpot was $125K at press time. Other promos include high hands, splashed pots, Kings Cracked, Queens Cracked, Sets Cracked and Aces Cracked.

ISLE CASINO LAKE CHARLES: There are new tournaments, including a $65 event on Saturdays and a $5K guarantee on Fridays for $150. The bad-beat jackpot was approaching $110K at press time. Other promotions include high hands, Aces Cracked, Kings Cracked and on Saturdays, if a royal flush is made, the table splits $3K.

L'AUBERGE CASINO RESORT LAKE CHARLES: There's a Full House Frenzy promo that pays $200, a bad-beat-jackpot that was $155K at press time and royals earn you $200 while straight flushes pay $100. Also, descending bad beats in the weekly tournaments have aces full as the qualifier, but it drops one ranking hand each hour until hit and will pay the losing hand $500 and the winning hand $250.

GOLDEN NUGGET LAKE CHARLES: The poker room moved to its new location next to the buffet May 21. Royals and straight flushes will be paid $200 and $100, respectively.

HORSESHOE CASINO BOSSIER CITY: The Southern Poker Open will be Aug. 8-11 with a $200K guarantee main event.

WSOPC IN NORTH CAROLINA HITS $5M

The third World Series of Poker Circuit stop at Harrah's Cherokee for the 2018-19 season attracted 10,749 entrants to its 13 ring events for a total prize pool of $5,078,200.

One of the big stories to come out of this series was the continued heater of Maurice Hawkins. After securing the Casino Champion title at Hard Rock Tulsa and final-tabling seven of the 11 WSOPC events he played before this stop, he outlasted 391 players in Event 4 ($600 no-limit hold'em), to claim his 12th ring and $44,297 for his victory. This victory had tied him all-time WSOPC leader Valentin Vornicu, but as you may have read in our Mississippi report, Hawkins broke the record with his 13th in Mississippi.

Matthew Higgins, Leif Force and Nicholas Verderamo were other notables to add more gold to their collection. But the focus for a WSOPC always lands on the $1,700 main event, which went to Jonas Wexler, defeating Phil Hernz heads-up for the ring and $300,536, his largest career cash.

Tyler Phillips won the Casino Champions title with six cashes and a runner-up finish in Event 5, earning a seat into the Global Casino Championship. ♠

Ante Up Poker Cruises kicked off its 2019 schedule with its first Easter cruise, and the Easter Bunny joined in on the fun on the five-night sailing aboard Royal Caribbean's Brilliance of the Seas from Tampa to Grand Cayman and Cozumel.

Ante Up's Scott Long was in costume for the Easter morning tournament, which Chelsea Nielsen won, and all players in the afternoon tournament got an Easter egg, with prizes including a main-event seat, bottles of wine, future cruise credit and chocolate eggs.

Ante Up has two more cruises this year: Aug. 5 on the newly renovated Mariner of the Seas from Port Canaveral to the Bahamas and Oct. 26 on the Adventure of the Seas from Ft. Lauderdale to four Eastern Caribbean ports. Each cruise features cash games, tournaments and an open-bar cocktail party.

All passengers get a custom card cover from the Poker Depot, a free membership to Advanced Poker Training and a pot-odds card from the Gambling School.

For more info, visit AnteUpCruises.Com and to book, contact Jeanne Cosenza at (727) 342-3843 or cruises@anteupcruises.com.

HUGE VICTORY FOR JACKSON IN A.C.

The Borgata Spring Poker Open in Atlantic City came to a close in the early hours of April 20, capping 19 events and awarding millions in prize money.

David Jackson took home his second Borgata trophy while booking his largest career score by winning the championship event. He edged a field of 500-plus runners after four days of play to earn $304,929, which pushed his career earnings past $1.8M. His wife watched the final table at Borgata, but many others watched via live stream on Twitch and Facebook Live.

The series started off with a bang a couple of weeks earlier as Alex Rocha became the first player to win two BPO kickoff events. His first was in the winter of 2011 for $150,850, beating 1,472. This time, he won in the spring and beat 2,200 players for $180K.

He then made the final table of the $500K-guarantee Almighty Stack about a week later, finishing fifth ($34,438). He also cashed in the championship event.

Lorinda Lisitza was the only woman to win an open event during this series, taking the pot-limit Omaha title and $4,795.

Alida Veliu went back-to-back in Borgata Open women's events, winning it in this series ($2,953) after taking down the same event in January's series. This was her third women's event victory at Borgata, her first was in 2009.

The Summer Poker Open will be July 9-26.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

PARX: The Big Stax series near Philadelphia still was running at press time, so be sure to check back for a recap in a future issue. This series included WPT Deepstacks' $1,500 main event, $300 and $500 tourneys and the Big Stax $2,500 main.

MOHEGAN SUN POCONO: The daily tournaments have expanded. Also, there are high-hand events on the second and fourth Saturdays of each month and the first and third Sundays. See our Where to Play pages in the back of this issue for more details or call the poker room.

DELAWARE

DOVER DOWNS HOTEL & CASINO: Seven events with $35K in guarantees are featured in the Getaway Weekend, June 28-30. The tournaments begin June 28 at 11:15 a.m. with a $5K guarantee. The $25K guarantee follows on June 29 at 11:15 a.m. and then there's a $5K on June 30 at 11:15 a.m.

MEET ERIC HALL

A former professional archer from Ledyard, Conn., Eric Hall is a longtime dealer and an avid poker player.

Did you come from a family of gamers? Are there any other games or competitions you enjoy? I was never a big game player, but then my son was born and he loves all games. In fact, he owns a comic, gaming and Magic the Gathering store. I had to play many games just to be a good dad. My son grew up playing big home poker games at a young age. He had to work all week to earn his buy-in. He's one of the best players I know and I know many great players. He's even better than I am, but don't tell him that. I need my father's edge over him. As for other games, I was one of the top archers in the world for many years. When I stopped shooting for a living, poker helped fill my need for competition.

How has your experience as a dealer made you a better poker player? Being a dealer has definitely helped my game. Dealing, you're outside the game and can see betting patterns and the demeanor of players much clearer than when playing. Watching so many hands, you can also train yourself to spot tells, and yes tells are visible when you know what to look for. Many dealers play way to loose and crazy because they are gamblers at heart, not poker players. Poker has an element of gambling, but is so much more. It's math; it's psychological; it's timing. It's all those things wrapped up into one perfect game.

Do you have any plans to go out to the WSOP? If I go, I think I would go for all two months and play everything possible. I'm making plans to go this year. Maybe I will find lightning in a bottle and win the big one. Why not me? I think that's what we all dream of. Win or lose, I'll have fun. I'll enjoy every bad beat and will tell anyone who'll listen. —Jon MacLellan promotions. Also, when you play 10 hours, you'll receive $50, after 15 hours you'll receive $75 and after 20 hours, you'll get $100. Tournaments run here at least twice a day and four events on Saturdays.

Foxwoods has steps that lead from CT to LV

The World Series of Poker in Las Vegas is around the corner and Foxwoods Resort Casino in Mashantucket, Conn., will give you the chance to win your buy-in to the main event for as little as $150. Until June 9, the casino will run daily $150 Step 1 tournaments to qualify for Step 2. You can win your way or buy in directly to the $1,200 satellite tournaments running June 2 and 9. About 1 in 12 will win the $10K WSOP seat and $2K for expenses.

Last year, these tournaments awarded 53 seats. For those not lucky enough to make it to Vegas this summer, Foxwoods is running its Summer Turbo Series from June 28 to July 7.

As for tournament results, Event 1 of the MegaStack Challenge ended April 29. John Diolosa bested Soheb Porbandarwala heads-up for the title. Diolosa came into the year with about $5K in poker earnings, but started 2019 with a final table in the $1,200 Deep Freeze Championship for $9K, and now adds $73K for this victory.

MOHEGAN SUN: Tuesdays in June will feature a $120 Super Stack $75K guarantee. Players start with 25K chips and cards are in the air at 6 p.m. in Uncasville. The room is filled with a variety of cash games and daily high-hand jackpots. For those looking for mixed games, Mondays and Thursdays feature an $8-$16 HORSE game and at 7 Thursday nights is a popular $2-$5 PLO game.

NEW YORK

RIVERS SCHENECTADY: The $100K-guarantee Spring Monster Stack finished April 28 as Timothy Brennan, Gilbert Taveras-Garcia and Eric Bresee each took home $22K-plus in the three-way chop. As for promotions, the Unlucky 7s means if you lose with quad sevens or better, you win your share of the $77,777 jackpot.

TURNING STONE RESORT CASINO: Verona's 32-table room hosts daily tournaments and pays high hands. The $75K guarantee was running at press time, so look for results in a future issue.

SENECA NIAGARA: The last Saturday of the month features a $10K guarantee for $250. Play starts at 11 a.m. with re-entries through Level 7.

MASSACHUSETTS

MGM SPRINGFIELD: New England's newest casino has a 23-table poker room and high-limit area. The room runs weekly tournaments at 11:15 a.m. and 6:15 p.m., Monday-Thursday and a $5K guarantee $150 green-chip bounty Sundays at 11:15 a.m. All tournaments feature the big-blind ante.

ENCORE BOSTON HARBOR: The opening of this casino in Everett is set for this month, featuring a 90-table poker room.

MAINE

HOLLYWOOD CASINO BANGOR: The state's lone poker room offers a progressive high hand and a royal-flush jackpot. The Tournament of Champions Finale is June 23 at 10 a.m. The event will feature a $300 buy-in, 50K stacks and 30-minute blinds with re-entry allowed in the first four levels.

RHODE ISLAND

TWIN RIVER CASINO: Just outside of Providence, this live poker room has 23 tables, featuring $1-$2, $2-$5 and $5-$10 NLHE. ♠

BURRIS BEATS TOUGH FIELD FOR IOWA WIN

Missouri's Nick Burris won his second World Series of Poker Circuit ring at the Horseshoe Casino in Council Bluffs, Iowa, during the first weekend in April when he captured down the $1,700 main event. Burris took home just shy of $100K when he beat his home-game friend, and five-time ring-winner Blair Hinkle.

"Really, really tough," Burris said. "Blair, Ari (Engel), Greg Jennings ... I mean, it was just a really tough table. Everybody played really well. Means a lot that I could win one with all those guys on the table."

Also at the Horseshoe, Lara Eisenberg from Bethesda, Md., won her first ring in the $1,125 event and took home $28,199. Other winners included Corky Stott (Event 1, $250 NLHE), James Shearer (Event 2, $400 bounty), Mohammed Nuwarah (Event 3, $400 NLHE), Richard Fitzgerald (Event 4, $400 NLHE), Justin Heilman (Event 5, $400 NLHE), Mark Fink (Event 6, $400 six-max), Sean Moore (Event 7, $400 Omaha/8), Bernard Morrow (Event 8, $400 NLHE), Jason Corn (Event 9 $400 NLHE), Jose Mendoza (Event 12, $400 NLHE), David Hengen (Event 13, $400 NLHE), John Reiss (seniors Event 1, $250 NLHE) and Kelly Vande Mheen (seniors Event 2, $250 NLHE).

The $20K guarantee Run Good Poker Series is June 21-23.

PRAIRIE MEADOWS CASINO: The property's final 2019 WSOP main-event satellite is June 9. The winner will receive the $10K entry and $2K for expenses.

RIVERSIDE CASINO: The bad-beat jackpot was $108K at press time.

MINNESOTA

CANTERBURY PARK: Mark Jaroslowski of Stillwater, Minn., earned $95,700 after surviving the 5.5-hour Mid-States Poker Tour final table Shakopee. He got to the final table with almost 11 big blinds, giving him the eighth largest stack. Despite half of the final table starting with less than 12 big blinds, it took a full level to lose the first player.

With six players left, Jaroslowski shoved all-in preflop with A-J and was called by Eric Eelkema's A-Q. The flop paired the jack and held to double up Jaroslowski, giving him the lead. Jaroslowski got heads-up with D.J. Buckley, exchanging the lead a few times before Jaroslowski's A-K bested Buckley's A-10 to earn him his largest career win. The $1,100 event drew 450 runners and generated a $435K prize pool.

RUNNING ACES: Thai Van Dinh of Duluth, Minn., earned his largest career cash of $35,322 by winning the $500 Spring

MEET JENNIFER STRUM

Born and raised in Richland County, Wis., Jennifer Strum as a child played cards with her grandfather, often using candy as currency. From a family of five children, Strum has two of her own and a grandchild. For 20 years, She was a dealer at Ho-Chunk Gaming Wisconsin Dells, retiring in March 2017.

How did you become interested in gambling? When I was 12, my dad bought me a scratch-off lottery ticket. I scratched three TV symbols and my dad got on the Wisconsin Money Game TV show where he won $3K. I'm pretty sure that lottery ticket planted the seeds of my interest in gambling.

How about poker? In the early years of my career, I played recreationally online. I remember vividly the first time I played live. I was 20-something and was incredibly nervous. I was this small-town girl playing poker with a bunch of guys in Las Vegas. It was on that trip that I was stopped by multiple gentlemen who expressed their respect for me and my game. That recognition grew my passion for the game even more.

What do you like most about poker? I love meeting new people and branching out in new directions. There's not a lot in life that intimidates me and even more that invites and excites me. Poker is inviting and exciting. The interactions and banter between players are great, but more than that, is the sincere welcoming and respect I've received from the poker world. It has been good for my soul. — Chad Holloway

Classic Main Event in Columbus.

The final table lasted for five-plus hours. Dinh held the lead when play was seven-handed. The final table ended with Dinh and Jeff Petronack heads-up for about an hour. The main event drew 289 entrants and generated a $126,148 prize pool.

Gerald Cunniff of St. Paul, Minn., bested a field of 187 runners to win the $290 Optimum for $11,308. The series offered 20 events with $30-$500 buy-ins.

HORSESHOE SOUTHERN INDIANA: The Horseshoe Classic runs June 7-16 and the $560 main event is June 15 at noon. There is an event that guarantees $5K to the winner, a 50-plus tourney and a turbo pot-limit Omaha as part of the 14-event series. All tournaments feature the big-blind-ante format.

MAJESTIC STAR: Charles Hall won the Shamrock Shenanigans tournament March 17, earning $7,703 from the $25K-plus prize pool by beating 102-plus entries.

Gus Cappas won March's monthly seniors tournament for $1,056. Keith Wigsmoen won April's for $1,375. Local pros Tim McCarthy and Gary Herstein were second and third, respectively.

The $150 seniors tournament (50-plus) is the second Sunday of the month at noon.

OHIO-WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

MEADOWS RACETRACK AND CASINO: The Washington, Pa., property hosted the Heartland Poker Tour (April 4-15) as the $1,100 main event drew 631 entrants and went to Dan Wagner of West Seneca, N.Y., who took home $76,165.

The runner-up was Anthony Mcle of Morgantown, W.Va., ($48,215) and Pittsburgh local Lydia Waltonbaugh ($32,287) was third. Wagner completed an impressive comeback as he had fewer than three big blinds at one point with the tournament still five-handed.

The victory was Wagner's sixth, first on the HPT, and his fourth-biggest cash, putting him at almost $900K in earnings.

"I ran great for the last three hours," he said after his win.

"They gave me the cards. I didn't have to do anything."

Mcle said it was "just a little bit of run-bad" but not something he was sweating. "I congratulate him," he said of Wagner. "He played well."

As for Wagner, he said the money would be rolled over to Las Vegas for the summer.

Other event winners included Doug Krecy ($350 NLHE, $42,402); Joshua Snodgrass ($200 bounty, $2,892); Brett Barbero ($200 PLO, $3,066); Elijah Hughs ($200 NLHE, $3,111); Richard Buxman ($300 bounty, $2,711) and Thomas Secret ($150 bounty, $1,708). The team of Stephen Keener and Michael Tauro took down the tag-team event for $3,055 each, and the senior event ended in a chop.

HOLLYWOOD CASINO COLUMBUS: The HPT visited April 18-29 and the $1,650 main event drew 588 entries. Spenser Cramer of Lewis Center, Ohio, won the title and $191,723. Ryan Wince of Delaware, Ohio, came in second ($118,434) and Mandeep Sah (Columbus) was third for $77,621. The nationally televised final table was the first in Ohio history.

On the final hand, Wince three-bet shoved all-in with 9-8 suited only to see Cramer call with aces, which held to seal the victory. Before this win, Cramer had less than $6K in lifetime tournament winnings.

Other events winners included Gary Hays ($350 NLHE, $37,222); James Kennedy (seniors, $6,374); Paul Shaneyfelt (mixed, $2,517); Ryan Kalb (six-max, $4,200) and John Dwyer ($300 bounty, $5,079). Dhillon Karaminder and Connor Burchwell won the tag-team event ($2,672 total). The $200 bounty, $300 seniors and $200 PLO events all ended in chops.

RIVERS CASINO PITTSBURGH: The World Poker Tour's WPT DeepStacks series ran April 18-28. Erik Lemarquand of Canada won the $1,100 main event, topping a field of 316 entrants for $66,593. Michele Iacovone (Mentor, Ohio, $46,704) finished second and third went to David Santucci of Houston ($30,039).

The WPT DeepStacks returns in October.

MICHIGAN

GUN LAKE CASINO: The Wayland poker room has a nice tournament schedule. Mondays at 7 p.m. is a $25 rebuy event with $20 rebuys. There's a $50 tourney on Tuesdays at 7, an $80 event Thursdays at 7, a $75 bounty event on Saturdays at 11 a.m. ($25 bounties) and Sundays have a $50 tournament at 1. But this event won't be held on the second Sunday of the month as that day is earmarked for a $240 bounty tournament at noon with $100 bounties.

FIREKEEPERS CASINO: Take advantage of the Battle Creek property's Match the Stack rule where in $1-$3 NLHE and PLO games, you are allowed to, after the first hand of a new game, buy in for as much as the largest stack at the table if that stack is greater than $500.

WISCONSIN

POTAWATOMI HOTEL AND CASINO: The $1,100 MSPT Milwaukee Open ran April 4-7 and drew 625 entrants as Dan Bekavac won the crown and $126,998, his second MSPT title. He won at Ho-Chunk Wisconsin Dells in Season 4. Looking ahead, the WSOPC returns to Potawatomi twice this season: Sept. 12-23 and Jan. 30-Feb. 10. ♠

THREE OLD MEN OF POKER
Bill Boyd, Johnny Moss,
Oklahoma Johnny Hale

I am one of the old men of poker played HEAD UP NLH WITH BENNY BINION BEFORE HE HAD A POKER ROOM IN THE HORSESHOE OR HAD CREATED THE WSOP. AND AM MEMBER OF BINIONS WSOP POKER HALL OF FAME.

I AM CREATOR OF SENIORS WCOP, MEMBER OF THE SENIORS WCOP/HALL OF FAME, & A WINNER OF THE SENIORS WCOP WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP. I WEAR THE ONLY GOLD BRACELET OF THE BINIONS WSOP AS BEST ALL AROUND POKER PLAYER IN THE WORLD.

About OK Sarah

PLAYED IN THE $10,000 BUY IN CHAMPIONSHIP OF POKER at WSOP five days with the best of them and made the money payoff. She defeated Amarillo Slim in two best out of three head up part of contest — won first two no need to play the third. Won the right to use his brand the super Bowl of poker as Benefactor of the Seniors Charities for charitable purposes whenever she wishes to use the brand. In addition to all of this, Sarah is a model and mother of a baby boy!

The Benefactors and friends of the charity will consider investing in the Seniors Week #4 and take part of your action. Please send your player information and request for a partnership investment in your play to email Okajohnny@aol.com. When you are in the GPS satellite area see OK-J for staking in satellites.

 All poker players who have a current active poker players card at the Golden Nugget Poker room are invited to play in the Seniors Week #4 Satellites which will begin on June 3, in the GPS Tournament. Subject to the condition that when they win they must sponsor a qualified Senior to play in the events & that the vouchers won have no cash value.

YOU HAVE YOUR SEAT, NOW USE IT WISELY

In my column in the May issue, I explored ideas on satellite play. After all, winning a seat into a larger event is a great place to start. So, you're in Las Vegas for the World Series of Poker or the many other series running at this time, and you have an entry into one of the many events. Incidentally, after looking the schedule over, blind structures seem to be faster than past years so don't be fooled by large starting-stacks. Adjust your play to the tournament speed. I have a few ideas on tournament play:

MARK BREMENT

In early stages, catch flops. Catch flops with position. Use bet-sizing to retain position. We have entered a major event with a field of thousands. I want you to win and those of you who follow my columns know my adage: Wear getting knocked out early as a badge of honor.

By following that advice, you find yourself in the middle stages with a respectable stack. Imagine blinds are 1K-2K with a 200 ante and you have 200K chips. Do not get comfortable. You must build that stack. Don't tighten up your game. Your goal is to win as 80 percent of the field will be playing to make the money ... not you. You're in it to win it. Your job is to exploit opponents' tightness and pick up the extra chips in play.

Exploit their tightness. Be a fox, not a farmer.

A note of caution: Don't misinterpret this advice as a license to play loose and passive and to catch flops out of position. Out-of-position play is forbidden. If you're going to execute the plan, you must take position by raising when entering. Also, if you're going to take a raise with position, make sure the villain has a huge stack and if you hit, you will earn a big pot. And this leads me to my last pearl of wisdom.

Be painfully aware of opponents' stacks. Always know what your stack size is in relation to the blinds. Furthermore, be aware of the average stack throughout the event. Knowing opponents' stacks will dictate decisions. Understand when an opponent is holding on for dear life and take advantage of situations. During the middle and late stages, we often find ourselves with 10, 20 or 30 big blinds. Formulate a strategy for this before you play. This will make it much easier to make some tough decisions after you have been playing for hours. Know the stacks of opponents like the back of your hand.

Avoid blunders and mistakes, chip up throughout, pay attention and most important, get a good night's sleep. That bracelet just might have your name on it.

— Mark Brement has spent 15 years teaching and coaching all facets of poker, including at Pima CC. Email him at brementmark@gmail.com.

THE DAILY GRINDER

DRAWING DEAD AND THEN GETTING THERE

How many times have you made your draw on the river, only to get beaten by a better hand? How did it feel? I'm guessing you were angry, disappointed and more. I've seen players throw cards on the table in disgust when this occurs.

WILLY NEUMAN

It happened to me recently and it still sticks in my mind. But I didn't experience any of these feelings, because I have learned to realize it's not productive. Instead, I analyzed the hand objectively and with brutal honesty. Frankly, I didn't like how I played the hand and realized I had made probably the maximum number of mistakes.

MISTAKE 1: I shouldn't have been in the hand. It was a marginal decision at best. I was dealt two middle spades in the cut-off seat and thought that since the hand had not been raised it would be worthwhile to call, because I had good position. But a hand like this needs better implied odds, since I certainly could not have been the favorite. With only one caller ahead of me, in addition to the blinds, there weren't enough players in the hand to make it a worthwhile call.

MISTAKE 2: The button raised. The small blind folded and both other players called so I called. The problem was I knew this player wouldn't have raised with less than A-J, so I was starting out behind.

MISTAKE 3: When the flop brought rags and two players ahead of me checked, I should have made a sizeable bet, because I knew it was likely the button had missed. Also, the flop delivered two spades, so the bet would've been a good semibluff. I knew the player on the button well enough that he would have assumed that my hand had improved if I had bet out and he most likely would have folded.

MISTAKE 4: The turn brought the ace of clubs, the player in front of me checked and I saw the button couldn't wait to bet. I definitely should not have called his bet, but I still was thinking about my draw.

MISTAKE 5: When the river brought a spade, I bet without hesitation. But why didn't I consider he might have had the nut flush? A bet here could have been a disaster.

MISTAKE 6: He raised. This is an ABC player. What else could he have had, other than A-J or A-Q of spades? Certainly he must've figured I had made my hand, and there was no way he would have raised without the nuts. I called, just in case he was making the first bluff I had ever seen him make. He won the hand with the nut flush. At least I got one thing right: a thorough, objective and accurate assessment of the hand.

The one good thing that might come from this is that the analysis might keep me from committing errors like this next time.

SURE, I'LL CHECK IT DOWN WITH YOU

Collusion. It's a word that's been on the forefront of American politics for the past two years or so, but at the poker table you'll find yourself experiencing specific collusion in its purest form. The check-it-down.

BRENT PHILBIN

For some reason, people think it's acceptable to check it down with friends or acquaintances at smaller limit games. They're not usually actively trying to cheat and would be taken aback by the idea that it is cheating. Usually this stems from an amateur engaging a defense mechanism.

Often when facing a bet, an amateur makes a bad decision; that's why there are players who can beat the game. It's strictly positive for the amateur's hourly rate to avoid aggressive action most of the time. Most winning players will have a rule to never do this.

Most times, if you suspect collusion, you need to get the floor involved. But I'd say in this instance, it's not necessary. Yes, players checking it down with each other is slightly changing the game.

They know once you fold they don't need to face aggressive action against each other, so they play slightly differently. It isn't enough to really hurt your bottom line and, if you decide to use it to your advantage, it could even increase it a little bit.

I've gone through two iterations of how to handle this. I recommend you do what I do now: When someone offers to check it down with you just politely mention that you don't really do that. It might annoy them in the short run or it might put you in a weird spot once or twice, but it'll keep the fish happy and maintain civility in the game.

The other thing I used to do is use it actively against the person. I'd notice who would do this and then befriend them, while mentioning they should check it down with me.

When they did, I'd simply use this rapport to get them to engage in this tacit collusion with me, but only on my terms. This would allow me to realize my equity in drawing hands a few times before inevitably taking an aggressive action.

The thing is, as long as you frame the aggressive action right, you'll still be able to get this person to act like you want for a little while longer.

Say things such as, "I'm sorry; I have to bet this hand." Even implying that others were in the hand like that's not the case in 100 percent of the hands: "John was in this hand, so I can't check it down with you; you know that."

You can keep this up for a long time before they get sick of it and even then they won't know how manipulative you were being about their lack of integrity in the game. Eye for an eye, right?

TOURNAMENT TRAIL

THEY HAVE TO CALL AND THEN HOLD UP

The middle stages of a tournament is where you really see the eliminations take place and formidable opponents being created or dusted off in the blink of an eye. If you play tournaments a lot, you're going to have to learn the basics of shove ranges, so here's a quick little explanation to hopefully make it more clear as to why you should elect to shove. As for the exact math of which hands you're shoving with from which positions, with which stacks, there's not enough room for that in this article. But you should be able to build a baseline for ranges based on how often opponents are calling your all-ins.

MICHAEL

Most tournaments have antes, even if it's just provided by the big blind, and those antes are extremely relevant for your decision-making process.

Let's say the blinds are 600-1,200, big-blind ante of 1,200 and it folds to you on the button. You have pocket fives. If your stack is less than or equal to around 15K, then you probably just want to move all-in.

Most players will make this decision. Why? There's 3K in blinds and antes available to be won. That 3K is a lot of chips if our stack is less than or equal to 15K, and this is where I introduce my preflop 20-percent rule. Opponents' call ranges will be limited, so you have the ability to gain 3K chips if both opponents fold.

You also have the ability to have 40 percent or so equity in an all-in range that is made up of overcards and overpairs from opponents and the combined range of outcomes is being estimated at around 40 percent.

So if opponents are calling 30 percent of the time, and this is where it gets dicey, estimating these types of numbers instantaneously mid-game, then your equity for the shove is 70 percent, while 30 percent of the time you get to play a roughly 32K pot depending on which blind calls you. Let's say you win 32K 40 percent of the time inside that 30 percent.

With 100 runs, you'll average a plus-144K boost to your stack, or an average expectation of plus-1.4K.

Most of the time, this is a desirable situation. You're adding fold equity to your overall win calculation and creating a profitable combination of moves that are impossible for opponents to exploit.

SHOULD YOU CHANGE YOUR GAME FOR THE BBA?

While a few traditionalists still haven't embraced the big-blind ante, most players celebrate its arrival as long overdue. Tournament play has been revitalized, lowering the burden on dealers and players, resulting in more play and less housekeeping. The WSOP has embraced it as well, utilizing it in all NLHE events for the first time this year.

STEVE BLAY

Every minor alteration in tournament structure necessitates finding a new comfort level. The tournament simulator on my website, AdvancedPokerTraining.com, offers a big-blind ante option. If you're a traditionalist, you can still play with individual antes. Either way, in one hour on APT, you can polish off a tournament that would take you 10 hours live. As with all changes in poker, the question is: How does this affect my strategy?

The short answer is, not much. Providing the ante for the whole table at once, vs. a small amount each hand, is irrelevant once the cards have been dealt. At a 10-person table, 10 antes of 100 or one ante of 1K adds up to the same hit to your stack each rotation.

That being said, the big-blind ante has indeed changed the thinking of some players. When the blinds are 500-1K, some players in the big blind feel like they are protecting 2K chips instead of 1K, so their willingness to defend their big blind increases. While this may lead to unintended positive consequences -- most players don't defend wide enough -- it's not the correct logic. The ante is gone. It's no more yours than when you're on the button and have posted nothing.

You'll need to pay attention to this and realize it will be harder to steal the blinds from some players. That being said, if they are defending too wide preflop, your c-bets will show a greater success rate against their weak range on the flop.

The existence of the big-blind ante may lead to a slight recalculation of shoving decisions. If you are under the gun with 10K chips and the blinds are 500-1K, you'll be paying 2,500 in blinds and antes in the next two hands, not the 1,700 you would pay with individual antes.

Being nearly another blind down when you emerge on the button increases the pressure to find a shoving hand before the blinds hit.

Finally, if you're heading to the WSOP, don't forget to stop by our Meet 'N' Greet on June 22 at Tommy Rockers across from the Rio. I'll be there as well as veteran player-coach-commentator Kenna James and maybe some surprise guests. Details here: advancedpokertraining.com/meetngreet.

TEXAS POKER CLUBS RAIDED

Houston police raided two poker clubs, arresting nine executives and seizing bank accounts worth around $10M.

SCOTT SAID: This is beyond ridiculous. If the goal of Houston police and the Harris County prosecutor was, "Hey, we have a different opinion of the statute than you do," all they had to do was walk in two years ago and say that. I don't know why they had to do a two-year undercover operation to eventually figure out that they were doing exactly what the clubs have been publicly saying they've been doing. There was nothing to uncover here.

CHRIS SAID: I just don't get it. I'm just so tired of these types of stories, where county officials are just breaking up these things with the most minute portion of the law. They come up every couple of months. It's crazy.

EVERGREEN POKER LESSONS

Paul Seaton from Poker News wrote an interesting article about five ways the poker classic Rounders tells lessons that are current today.

CHRIS SAID: It's interesting. I suppose you could apply a lot of this to the Cincinnati Kid or any poker movie.

SCOTT SAID: I'm hard-pressed to find another poker movie that has done all five of these things. I don't think the other movies touch on all five of these things. These things are all very real and have held up for 20 years or so.

Even Worm is shocked at how well Rounders holds up.

POKER AND KIM KARDASHIAN

A photo of Kim Kardashian wearing mirrored sunglasses at a poker tournament, questioning her intelligence, has been "debunked" by Snopes.com.

SCOTT SAID: I can see how the gullible people in our nation, 85 percent of them, can fall for this because everyone is looking for a way to make Kim Kardashian look unintelligent. I'll plead with every one of our listeners: Snopes.com is your friend. If you see something on Facebook, Twitter, in a chain email from your dad and say, "I can't believe this is true," more than likely, if you go to Snopes, you'll find out that it isn't.

CHRIS SAID: What has our world come to? This is what makes her a billionaire. She gets all of this free publicity over stuff like this. Now she's stepped into our world. Unreal.

WE LOVE OUR FANS

Ante Up fan Rick Barnes mailed us a certificate proclaiming the Ante Up PokerCast as the first (and only) winner of the Rick's Club PokerCast of the Year! Sure, it's a made-up award, but the $250 check for our Restock the Shelves food-bank initiative was real.

SCOTT SAID: That's a real award given to us by a fan who made it up, so that means something.

CHRIS SAID: That means more than any Global Poker Award, I'll tell you that. That's incredible. You don't expect stuff like that. Very generous.
