OUR MISSION

Ante Up, YOUR Poker Magazine, is dedicated to everyday poker players and their poker rooms.

Let's make a deal

It's that time of year again, when rounders from across the world descend upon Las Vegas for a shot at immortality.

It's the 50th anniversary of the World Series of Poker, and on this, the golden anniversary of the WSOP, there is no more appropriate time than to ask you to please follow the Golden Rule. That means you treat others the way you would like to be treated. But we'd like to make an impassioned plea for you to especially follow this rule when it comes to poker dealers.

You may not know this, but many of the dealers you will encounter this summer in the desert are as green as $25 chip. The WSOP may be the first time these dealers are seeing action. That's the equivalent of deciding one day to be a pitcher and finding yourself on the mound at Yankee Stadium in Game 7 of the ... well, World Series.

It's quite remarkable how a misdeal or a bad beat can turn an otherwise perfectly rational human being into an irrational monster. Do you really believe the dealer is responsible for your losing that pot? There is no excuse for mistreating a dealer, yet it happens so frequently.

We once had a guest on our PokerCast who had dealt cards all over the world and owned a dealer school. He recalled a time when a player in Atlantic City, who lost a huge pot on a one-outer, urinated on the table and the dealer. Another guest on our show told us he was so angry and that he threw his cards at the muck that they skipped off the table and lacerated the dealer's forehead.

This will not stand. The next time you are playing cards, whether it's at this upcoming World Series or in one of the hundreds of poker rooms across North America, behave in a manner that is akin to eating Sunday dinner with the family. You wouldn't throw your mashed potatoes at your mother, would you?

We'll see you at the tables, hopefully behaving admirably. — Christopher Cosenza and Scott Long

SEIZING THE DAY

In town to visit his uncle, Lithuanian Mantas Stikelis makes the most of it, capturing the AUPT event.

By Scott Long

Mantas Stikelis came a long way to get this first major title, just more than 5,846 miles. ... or 9,408 kilometers, as he would say.

The native of Lithuania was in town visiting his uncle, saw the Ante Up Spring Poker Classic was at Gila River Hotels & Casinos Vee Quiva in Laveen, Ariz., and decided to play. After a dominant final-table performance, he won $18,189, a seat in the Ante Up World Championship and is on the cover of this issue.

"I feel like a winner! It was a smooth ride today, but the first day was very tiring," Stikelis said. "I bubbled Day 1A, so I jumped into Day 1B and got a stack, so I was happy. It gave me a day off, so I went to the Phoenix Suns game and spent some time with my uncle. ... He's been here 20 years. He's from Lithuania, as well, and my cousin is here, too. I had been playing poker online in Mexico, grinding. So I just came here because it was near. It was an opportunity, so why not take it?"

He made the most of that opportunity.

After a breakneck pace for Day 2 that saw more than half of the field eliminated in the first 2.5 hours, Stikelis came to the final table as chipleader and he put those chips to good use, setting the pace early by raising a large number of hands preflop and getting little resistance.

"I think I understood ICM way better than they did, so I knew all the spots where I should raise or fold," he said of his opponents.

He knocked out Daniel Breeze, and then not much longer, felted Johnny Large and Greg O'Donahue on the same hand with pocket queens against two pocket pairs. After former NBA champion Earl Barron eliminated Michael Kahn and Andrew Conway on the same hand, Stikelis struck again two hands later, sending Greg Brewer to the rail. Shortly after, he eliminated last year's Ante Up Spring Poker Classic champion, Alex Flores, in fourth place.

After Jesus Sicaeros eliminated Barron in third, the two were heads-up with about even stacks that could have led to a marathon match. But it ended quickly. The two traded several pots and Stikelis got a feel for his opponent and made the necessary adjustments.

"He was calling my raises light, so I started raising bigger," he said.

The finale started when an ace came on the flop. On the turn, Stikelis bet 400K and Sicaeros quickly raised to 900K. Stikelis said he could tell his opponent wanted to get it all-in there, but Stikelis wanted to see the river. Sicaeros shoved blind before that card made it to the felt and Stikelis quickly called, tabling A-Q to eliminate Sicaeros holding A-10.

"There were some cards where I might not have called on the river," Stikelis said. "When it was a blank, I just snappedcall."

But it was a title Stikelis almost didn't get to savor. Earlier in the day, he lost half of his stack on a big bluff that he wasn't expecting.

"My friends told me, 'You can expect something strange from Americans.' And they were right," he said, referring to the hand that crippled him. "After that, I went to meditate, chill out and everything went smooth after that and I got a lot a good cards. That makes it easy."

Stikelis started playing online when he was 18. He began playing live in Lithuanian casinos when he turned 21 and has racked up 10 cashes on Hendon Mob, almost all in his country.

"I prefer live, no doubt. When you are playing poker, you need to see the people and interact with the players. Online, it's only the numbers. And there are shady things going on," he said. "I'm 26, I have no education, so it's the only way I can make some money."

And he uses that money to help him see the world.

"I like to travel. And wherever I go, I play poker," he said. "I'm going to stay one more week here and maybe play some cash games. Then I'm going to head to San Diego for a couple eled by Tim's final-table appearance.

"It went fabulous. I really can't be more ecstatic about how everything turned out," said Zach Lansing, Vee Quiva's poker room manager. "All the team did an amazing job. There are definitely things we learned and will improve on for next time, but all in all, Gila River is really becoming a force to be looked at in Arizona. We have built this up from nothing and it is really turning into something amazing. We're looking forward to the future and want to build on what we've grown into."

At the foot of the beautiful South Mountain, Vee Quiva is one of three casinos in the Gila River Hotels & Casinos enterprise, which is owned and operated by the Gila River Indian Community. The AAA Four Diamond resort features a 14-table poker room, 24 table games, more than 985 slot machines and a 492-seat bingo hall. The resort offers 90 luxurious hotel rooms, outdoor pool with poolside suites, event center, four bars and lounges and four restaurants, with George Lopez's Chingon Kitchen opening soon.

Gila River will host an Ante Up Poker Tour series at its flagship casino, Wild Horse Pass, Nov. 11-16.

of weeks. I've heard there is good poker there, too. And then I'll meet up with some friends in Las Vegas before heading home. I really enjoy spending time in Lithuania in the summer. I don't play a lot of poker then. I'm living seaside now and I love that city."

The main event drew 319 entries over four flights, generating a prize pool of $95,700, easily surpassing the $75K guarantee. PokerNews.Com provided live reporting of the main event.

The series, which expanded from last year's single event, kicked off with the aforementioned Flores winning the $230 tourney. Eight other tournaments followed in a variety of disciplines, including HORSE, triple-stud and Omaha/8, while Rebecca Wooten won the well-attended women's championship. Perhaps the most unique event was the team tournament that divided partners on different tables, with half of the prize pool reserved for individual performance, won by Trevor Donaldson, while the other half of the prize pool went to the teams with the lowest scores based on each player's performance. The father-son duo of Tim and Jon Quinn squeaked out a one-point win for the team title, fu-

SHAMAR WINS TEXAS CHAMP. OPENER

Normalized Schemer of Austin, Texas, won Event 1 of Texas' Poker Championship Series presented by Ante Up, taking home $60,020 and the winner's sterling silver and diamond bracelet. There were 1,377 entrants who entered across three poker rooms: Texas Card House in Austin, Post Oak Poker Club in Houston and SA Card House in San Antonio. Day 2, which saw 89 survivors, was at SA Card House and lasted 11-plus hours, including a three-plus-hour final table.

Shamar's K-5 turned into a club flush on the winning hand over Demond Williams, who took home $42,100 for second. The rest of the final table included Nathan Russler, Dudley Miller, Adrian Garduno, Matthew Camp, Joseph Puuv, Mitchelle Brizuela and Oleksandr Suprun.

"We couldn't be happier or more grateful on the results," Social Card Clubs of Texas tournament director Sam Von Kennel said. "We had 50 percent more entries than the first tournament we ran in December and $100K more in the prize pool. SA Card House was a perfect venue for the finals and the exposure we got from Ante Up Magazine plus our other supporting sponsors Gary Platt and PokerGo was great."

The Texas Poker Championship Series is the primary fundraising vehicle for Social Card Clubs of Texas, a non-profit industry association working with government officials and industry leaders across Texas to benefit Texas communities by promoting responsible social card play. Comprised of member clubs SA Card House, Texas Card House, Post Oak Poker Club, and Kojack's Poker Club, the organization gets support from patrons and corporate sponsors.

The next event is May 17-26 with Day 1s in Austin, San Antonio and Houston. Day 2 will be at the new Texas Card House in Spring, Texas.

MEET KACEY QUICK

Kacey Quick got her start in poker employment as a dealer more than a decade ago before moving up quickly into management as a tournament director for WPT and Norwegian cruises.

What are your favorite games as a player?

Omaha! It works your brain. I constantly try to learn new things and there just isn't enough time in the day to learn all of the ins and outs of Omaha. High only, though. I don't enjoy being quartered.

What is your most memorable experience in poker? As a player at a cash table, I'm in the big blind and I have the table covered. Under the gun announces all-in. The entire table follows suit. So without looking at my hand, I call. Everyone flips over their hands for fun. I have A-3. The flop comes ace-ace-ace. What a once-in-a-lifetime win, right? As a supervisor, it's the people I meet. In particular, a man named Dale. He's been paralyzed from the neck down. He plays poker and wins every chance he gets and has the best outlook on life. He had my husband and me in tears the first time we sat down for a conversation. This man has been through it! Nothing I have ever gone through could compare and his perspective on life is so positive. — Mark Watts

Colorado

GOLDEN GATES: From a field of 205 entrants, Mihai Itoafa defeated Sergio Sanchez with a diamond flush in the Colorado Poker Championship Main Event in March. Sanchez received $25,162 and Itoafa walked away with $33,125. The top four players made an equity deal, leaving Ben Keeline in third ($27K), Bruce Carter in fourth ($27K) and fifth went to Anthony Martinez ($11K). WPT DeepStacks will be here May 9-13 with a $1,500 main event.

AMERISTAR: The poker room offers charging ports and a spacious room with 22 tables. Four hours of play in one day qualifies you for a poker rate in the hotel. Primary bad-beat and mini-bad-beat jackpots are offered.

CRIPPLE CREEK: At Midnight Rose, there's a Saturday afternoon Fast and Furious Freezeout for $65 and 30K chips (no re-entry). On Sundays, the Meganormous Stack has an escalating blind structure ($120, 50K chips, late/re-entry). Play four hours of cash games Monday-Thursday and stay the night free.

Talking Stick Resort in Arizona has so many events to play

Talking Stick Resort in Scottsdale, Ariz., had its usual plethora of large-scale events in March. Here's a recap:

Steven Meyers of Ohio captured the March 2 Big Stack, topping a field of 253 entrants in the $345 event, earning him $10,180. Michael Bennett and Giuseppe Petrillo each took home $7,055 for second and third. David "Brownie" Brownworth ($6,783) and Charles Russo ($6,642) rounded out the top five.

The $240 bounty tourney March 9 had 274 runners and James Arredondo won the title, pocketing $4,800. The next four finishers were Bjorn Peterson ($4,200), Amanda Rodgers ($3K), Issa Yacoub ($1,562) and Joseph Lorenz ($1,562).

March 16 saw a huge prize pool with 219 players paying $500. The final table played out until only two players remained. Daniel Chuprun and Jeremy Brown chopped for $19,197 each. Third place went to Steven Stowe ($11,402), followed by Craig Gacom ($7,213) and Mark McGaffin ($5,724).

The month wrapped up with a $200 event that had $10K added to the prize pool on March 23. After several deals at the final table, Nathan Pleger ended up in third ($5K) and Linda Lesterson and Corey Normoyle chopped the pool for $7K each.

Here are the Talking Stick events this month: May 4, $345 big stack; May 5, $110 Jack and Jill; May 11, $240 bounty; May 18, $500 NLHE; May 19, $110 women's event; May 25, $160 End of the Month; May 26, $160 NLHE.

Wacky Wednesday is May 8 and 22 (noon to 11:45 p.m.). This is when the hold'em high hand pays every 30 minutes as the winner receives $200 and the table gets a $100 splash pot. In Omaha and stud games, the high hand is every hour and the winner receives $150.

VEE QUIVA: See the ad on Page 7 for details to Arizona's first Short Deck tourney May 3.

HON-DAH RESORT: There are some changes to the tournament schedule at the Pinetop property. There's a Deuces Wild tournament on Monday nights at 6 and Friday night is a big bounty on the first Friday of every month. It will have a $120 buy-in instead of $45 and bounties will be $50 instead of $25. May 18 at 4 p.m. is the annual Poker for Paws tournament to benefit one of the local humane societies. Buy-in is $100 with an optional $50 add-on, plus a donation for the furry friends.

ISLETA CASINO: The room hosts its $1K tournament May 25 at 5 p.m. The buy-in is $100 (15K chips, 20-minute levels) and $1K will be added to the prize pool. Players can earn a seat on the cheap in a $50 satellite May 4, 11, 18 or 23 at 7 p.m.

SANDIA CASINO: Mark Godshall won the Big Dog Deepstack on March 17 for $15,388. Shekar Despamde finished second ($9,545) and Jerry Barozo was third ($6,981). A room favorite, Craig Lecompte, was sixth ($2,707).

The poker room hosts its 18-year Anniversary Tournament on May 18 at noon. The buy-in is $180 with an optional $10 add-on. The property is adding $1,800 to the prize pool.

The poker room also has tournaments throughout the week and they all start at 7 p.m.

ROUTE 66 CASINO: Daily $28 tournaments with a $5 add-on run at noon, 3 and 7. The events on Monday, Wednesday and Friday pay bounties. There's also tournament bad-beat jackpot.

OKLAHOMA-KANSAS

HARD ROCK TULSA: The WSOPC had a 16-event stop and Phillip Pope of Dallas took home his first ring and $215K by topping the 533-entry field in the $1,700 main event.

Other winners included Michael Carter (Event 3, 1,399 entries, $86K); local Kristi Hamrick (Event 6, 317 entries, $63.4K); David Avina (Event 8, 298 entries, $23K) and Pam Belote, who won her first ring a month earlier and came back from a short stack to make it to the final table in the 103-entry women's event, where she quickly doubled-up through Ante Up Ambassador Megan Moore and turned that into her second ring and $6K.

The RunGood Poker Series will make its last stop of the series here April 30-May 6.

AMERISTAR: Players earn $1 an hour comps with a $15 food voucher for four consecutive hours of play in the 13-table room. Promotions include a variety of mini-bad-beats, earning the loser a minimum of $250.

MEET BONNIE CARL

A retired registered nurse, Bonnie Carl became a poker dealer in February 2018 and she pitches at Morongo Casino in Cabazon, Calif.

She got an early start by watching her grandmother and friends play poker after their Saturday luncheons.

"I learned the ins and outs of five-card and seven-card stud in those days. ... Poker has many facets. I love the social interaction, being able to put my people-reading skills to work. It's great to apply a variety of strategies and watch how they work, or not. And I'm secretly, or maybe not so secretly, very competitive.

She's president of the Women's Poker Association and is passionate about bringing more women into the game. Carl said women have an important place in poker and she's dedicated to spreading the camaraderie, fun and competitive spirit that women bring to the game.

Carl plays cash games and tournaments and has success in both.

"I won hundreds of dollars playing against a table full of locals the very first time I played in a live casino game," she said. She has cashed in the women's and seniors events at the WSOP.

When she's not doing something poker-related, she enjoys scuba diving, underwater photography, traveling, gardening and exercising. — Kittie Aleman

BAY 101 CASINO: Deep Pulusani won the $5,250 Bay 101 Shooting Star, defeating Ryan Tosoc to take home $354,400. Tosoc earned $336,500 as they agreed before heads-up play to leave $50K, the trophy and the title on the line. The event drew a 440-entry field for its only day of registration, creating a prize pool of $2.156M. A large group of $2K bounties were in the field, including Loni Harwood and Dan Shak, who both made the final table, along with the likes of Ari Engel, Mike Matusow, Shannon Shorr, Lon McEachern, David Tuchman, Eddy Sabat, Joe Stapleton, Moshin Charania, Alex Greenblatt, Joe Nguyen, Pat Lyons, Chris Moorman, Dylan Wilkerson, Jesse Sylvia, J.C. Yu dominates WSOPC at Bike, wins 2 titles, including main

The World Series of Poker Circuit recently concluded at the Bicycle Casino in Bell Gardens, Calif., as Sean Yu took down two events, including the $1,700 main event, which had 678 entrants. The $1.02M prize pool paid 72 spots and $210,585 to first place.

Yu made it to Day 2 with the fourth-largest stack and took the lead as 12 players survived to Day 3. The 43-year-old faced off against Andrew Moreno for the title as things ended quickly after Yu flopped a set and Moreno flopped two pair.

Yu also took the top prize in Event 5 ($400 NLHE) for $13,225. Though scheduled as a two-day tourney, Yu ran through 143 entries in just one.

Paul Camby topped the 1,292-entry field for Event 1 ($400 monster stack), earning $100,150. Here's a look at some of the other winners: Gladys Landegger (Event 2, $400 NLHE, $9,300); Emil Mactal (Event 3, $400 NLHE, $17,565); Denis Bilodeau (Event 4, $400 Omaha/8, $11,380); Alan Myerson (Event 6, $400 HORSE, $12,475); Kevin Eyster (Event 7, $1,125 NLHE, $40,875 and his fourth ring); Mike Eskandari (Event 9, $600 NLHE, $28,835); Mark Jeans (Event 11, $400 NLHE, $8,750); Erick But (Event 12, $3,250 NLHE, $84,595, and Brian Snell (Event 13, $250 NLHE, $19,440).

Matthew Elsby persevered to win what would be one of the crazier events of the series. Event 8 had an extremely affordable $250 buy-in and featured a $100K guarantee. This combination drew 812 entries. Elsby had to wait in line for two-plus hours, nearly missing the deadline when registering his second bullet. In the end, he seized his second ring around 5:30 a.m., and earned $31,795.

GRAND SERIES IN VEGAS BEGINS MAY 28

The Grand Poker Series runs May 28-July 8 at Golden L Nugget in downtown Las Vegas. The $600 main event has three starting flights beginning June 27 and offers a $600K guarantee.

Most weekends during the series will offer $200 buy-in, multi-flight NLHE events. Each will have three starting flights a day on Thursday, Friday and Saturday with Day 2 on Sunday. The guarantees for these is $250K, except for the first one, starting May 30, which has a $300K guarantee.

Once again, a staple of the series is a $150 NLHE tourney at 1 p.m. that runs daily, except during the weekends that offer the $200 multi-flight event. The guarantee on most days is

There are four seniors events starting June 15, including Omaha/8 with a $10K guarantee on June 17. A $150 women's event with a $10K guarantee is set for June 19.

Disciplines other than hold'em are offered most days at 11 a.m., usually for $250. Guarantees vary between $10K and $20K. There are also $360 events in this timeslot. Big O, with a $10K guarantee, runs June 24. A $20K guarantee HORSE event is June 30. A PLO bounty event with $100 bounties and a $10K guarantee is July 1. Stud, with a $10K guarantee, follows on July 2. July 3 is the Omaha/8-stud/8 championship with a $25K guarantee.

VENETIAN: The Deepstack Championship Poker Series runs May 13-July 28 and offers more than $24M in guarantees. A $1,100 Summer Kickoff event with two starting flights and a $400K guarantee starts May 27. On June 3, a three-day MSPT event with a $3M guarantee has the first of its four starting flights.

Another MSPT event with a $3M guarantee is June 17. It has a $1,600 buy-in and three starting flights. On June 24, a four-day, $3,500 event with a $2M guarantee begins. It has just one starting flight, with registration open until 5 p.m. on Day 2.

Two $1,100 Summer Saver events are in July, each with $1M guarantees. The first of the two starting flights are July 5 and July 9, respectively. New this year are a couple of Epic Stack tournaments, which are $600 events with five starting flights each and $750K guarantees. The starting stack is 50K. The first flights for these are June 14 and June 23.

The $500 LIPS tournament has a $50K guarantee and runs June 17-18. An $800 seniors event with a $750K guarantee has the first of its two starting flights on June 10.

Fans of disciplines other than hold'em can find Omaha/8, PLO, PLO/8, PLO bounty, Big O and HORSE events throughout the series. A one-day, $600 Omaha/8-stud/8 tourney with a $50K guarantee runs June 22.

The main event is a four-day, $5K buy-in with two starting flights beginning July 16. It has a $2M guarantee.

ORLEANS: The Summer Poker Series runs May 28-July 7. A $150 tourney with a $25K guarantee runs at 11 a.m. most days.

Championship events, with $400 buy-ins, run throughout in a variety of disciplines. There's Omaha/8 (June 1), HORSE (June 2), eight-game mix (June 8), stud mix (June 9), PLO (June 16) and PLO/8 (June 23). All of these have $50K guarantees.

The $400 NLHE championship has three starting flights beginning June 29 and a $200K guarantee.

The $300 LIPS Championship, with two starting flights, begins June 21. The Senior Poker Tour hosts its $400 championship event June 15.

Except for the events noted, most days have a NLHE tournament in the day and a non-hold'em event in the evening. These are priced between $150 and $300. There's plenty of Omaha, Omaha/8stud/8, Triple Draw, eightgame mix, triple stud and HORSE.

The Orleans is offering a Player of the Series award. A total of $10K will be awarded, with the top point getter earning $5K.

WYNN: The Summer Classic is May 30-July 16. The first big multi-day event begins June 11 with a $1,100 buy-in, threestarting flights and a $1.5M guarantee. The first of two-starting flights for the $1,100 PLO championship is June 25. It has a $500K guarantee.

The $1,600 championship has three starting flights beginning July 11. It has a $2M guarantee.

There are two $1,100 seniors events (June 9 and July 7), each with a $250K guarantee. A $400 women's event with a $50K guarantee is June 25. A $550 PLO tournament with a $100K guarantee is June 16.

The rest of the schedule is filled out with one-day NLHE tournaments with solid guarantees. The biggest of these are the $1,600 events with $350K guarantees running June 4, June 23 and July 9. One-day $1,100 events with $250K guarantees make up a good portion of the schedule.

BINION'S: The Summer Series runs June 1-July 1. This series specializes in games other than hold'em. Except for Sundays, the featured daily event for the first 2.5 weeks is a $550 event. June 1 is PLO/8; June 3 is HORSE; June 5 is Omaha/8; June 6 is stud; June 8 is PLO; June 10 is triple stud; June 12 is stud/8; June 15 is Omaha/8-stud/8; June 17 is PLO/8; June 18 is razz, and June 27 is triple stud. There's a $550 NLHE event June 14.

Championship events with $1,100 buy-ins run later in the series. These all have two starting flights. PLO is June 19, NLHE is June 23 and HORSE is June 28.

$200K GUAR. AT BESTBET JAX MAY 10

here's a 10-day, 12-event series at bestbet Jacksonville this month. The $200K guarantee main event begins May 10, (Day 1A) and May 11 (Day 1B). This event has a $1,100 buyin. Event 1, a $100K guarantee, has four flights May 3-4 (two per day) for $360. Mega- and super-satellites are available leading up to the main ($260).

Other events include three bounty tourneys, a monster stack, a six-hour Ironman, Omaha/8 and a turbo. Event 6 (May 9) is a $590 mega-satellite into the World Series of Poker main event. The package includes a $10K seat and $3K for travel.

Bestbet Jacksonville concluded its WPT DeepStack series in March, offering 14 events and almost $1M in combined prize pools. Event 1 opened with a $360 tournament and a $100K guarantee. Jonathan Strange of South Carolina won the event and $46,505. Event 2 was the $200 All-in-or-Fold event with a $50 bounties. Representing Georgia, Chris Read took the win for $1500, plus eight bounties.

Event 7 was a $240 women's event, which drew in 59 players and a prize pool of $11,800. Georgia's Lakisha Slaughter took first for $4,838 and Read was second ($2,596). Event 8 was the $290 six-hour Ironman, but don't let the title fool you, because it was Ironwoman Lisa Buck who captured the title and $7,080.

Event 9 was a $220 charity event benefitting K9s for Warriors and went to Jack Sumner. Another Georgian, Jamichael Harris, outlasted 57 entries for the title and $4,933 in Event 10 ($350 Big O/8). The $1,500 main event with to Victor Coelho of Tampa, beating nearly 450 players for $120K, plus a $3K WPT DeepStacks Championship package. Richard Kirsch of Ft. Lauderdale was second ($84,407).

BESTBET ORANGE PARK: The March deepstack $30K drew 313 players as Grady Griffin of Jacksonville took the title and $8,044. The $50,080 prize pool paid 22 places.

CREEK GRETNA: The $270 monthly $10K is May 18. There are $60 satellites into this event Sundays, Thursdays and most Saturdays. The March winner, Roger Pessin, won $3,414. Other May events include a $60 tourney with a $2K guarantee May 4 and a $120 event with a $5K guarantee May 24.

EBRO GREYHOUND PARK: There are $100 high hands all month. The May tournament schedule is $40 turbos Tuesday and Thursday, $120 events Wednesday and Friday, and $60 on Saturdays with $200 deepstacks May 19 and 26.

ORANGE CITY RACING AND CARD CLUB: Orlando's closest poker room features GAPT tournament series events Mondays and Tuesdays at 7:10 p.m. Buy-ins to these tourneys are $100 and

MEET CHRIS READ

Chris Read is a Georgia pro who has been playing poker for 12 years. She has spent most of her career as a cashgame player, but in 2016 she switched to tournament play. After some impressive cashes the past two years, she decided to go pro, making seven final tables, which includes five at the recent WPT DeepStacks at bestbet in Jacksonville.

What made you become a pro? I've worked my butt off in the corporate world for 34 years. I finally decided it was time to go for my dreams and do what I love. Having the support of family, especially my husband, Rick, and friends has been great. It has been terrifying but exciting all at the same time.

What do you contribute to this run you've been on this year? Probably sheer willpower. I'm working hard on several aspects of my game and I'm gaining a deeper understanding of tournament strategy every time I play. I still have a lot to learn, but I've taken on this challenge and don't intend to let myself fail.

How was the transition from cash to tourneys and what advice would you give doing it? I took me about a year to fully transition from cash to tournament, because I was a very aggressive cash player. I'm much more conservative and strategic in my tournament play. I attempted to play both for a while and both games suffered. My advice would be to pick one and really focus on playing it to the best of your ability. - Sharon Fekete $125, respectively. May 3 and 17 are a $610 No Rake WSOP main-event qualifiers. One in every 20 buy-ins will earn a seat and $2K. Multitable $150 qualifiers are available into these events.

PENSACOLA GREYHOUND TRACK: The multi-flight $20K guarantee is May 23-25 (Day 1 flights) with Day 2 May 26. The March $50K finished in a chop between Ned Griffis and Justin Donato, each receiving $10,300.

DAYTONA BEACH RACING AND CARD CLUB: Congrats to William Mariash, winner of the GAPT Spring Fling. Mariash bested a field of 542 and won $9,634 and a $500 GAPT Championship seat. Joseph Boulais was runner-up. Grant Leber and Miguel Hernandez, winners of WSOP main-event entries. DBRCC will hold WSOP qualifiers May 10 and 31.

The March Mayhem $25K drew 267 entries as Enos Smith prevailed for $7,732.

RODRIGUEZ WINS AGAIN IN S. FLA.

The second edition of the $250 Seminole Turnpike Series, the first was in December, was a major hit as the Seminole Hard Rock in Hollywood, Fla., collaborated with its sister property in Coconut Creek to bring together some of the best players in South Florida.

After six flights in Hollywood and six at Coconut Creek in late March, 161 players advanced to Day 2 to fill half of the ballroom at the Hollywood property March 31. Carlo Rodriguez of Weston, who had won a $30K Platinum Pass in a drawing at the Hard Rock last August, entered Day 2 as chipleader, leading Kevin Ho and Phil Hui by a slim margin.

Rodriguez and Hui made the final table and after Hui left in eighth place, initial talks about a chop began. With six players left, Rodriguez resisted, turning down a $28K payout for his position as fifth in chips. As Rodriguez chipped up to the lead in the next few hands, his decision was rewarded by crippling David Nathaniel, then eliminating Ricardo Velasco. At that time, everyone was agreeable to a chop and Rodriguez was awarded the guitar trophy and nearly $42K.

"I really wanted the trophy for my daughter, who was injured today during play and had to have stitches," Rodriguez said. "So I had to stick with it and bring home the trophy that I promised her."

Tournament director Tony Burns was pleased with the turnout of 1,537 players and felt it was beneficial to the growing Coconut Creek property. "The locals absolutely love this event," he said, "When I first arrived at this job, there were discussions on how to integrate the two properties, so to see it actually executed was awesome."

In other Hard Rock news, the Escalator III series' final tournament, a $560 event March 17, went to Ofer Peleg, who won $60K and a seat to the WPT Seminole Showdown.

PBKC: The 11th annual Butch Smith Poker Classic raised $45K-plus for charity in late March at the Palm Beach Kennel Club. Smith was a veteran firefighter captain who served the Palm Beach County community for many years. This year's tourney drew 387 entries. See the ad on Page 42.

ISLE CASINO: Ian O'Hara of Boca Raton zoomed to the top of the Isle Poker's all-time money list by winning two events in the Battles at the Beach series in Pompano Beach, including a victory in the $1,500 main event. The 26-year-old defeated Gregory Fishberg of Willow Grove, Pa., to take home the trophy and nearly $76K, adding a second BATB trophy from this series to his collection after winning Event 3, a $360 tourney.

Missouri

Bill Byrnes was crowned champion of Heartland Poker Tour's first stop at Hollywood Casino St. Louis. The $1,650 main event drew 444 entries for a $646K prize pool. Byrnes, a 47-year-old criminal defense attorney from Wentzville, Mo., received $148,587, some of which he plans to donate to charity. Byrnes also faced the possibility of being blinded down for most of Day 2 because a case of his was set for jury trial, but fortunately, he was far enough down the list that they didn't make it to him. Byrnes' previous best score was $55,968 for an 11th-place finish in the Colossus at the 2015 WSOP.

St. Louis' Keith Heine was runner-up, taking home $91,735, one spot better than his third-place finish in this event in August at Ameristar. The $42,314 payday for David Simon, another St. Louis local who finished fourth, was by far the largest of his career, accounting for more than 40 percent of his almost $100K in earnings.

Shawn Roberts (Ozark, Mo.) and Ryan Tepen (Chersterfield, Mo.) also cashed the main in 19th and 40th, respectively. Roberts finished second at the HPT in Black Hawk, Colo., for $120K-plus in February.

Craig Welko may not have cashed in the main, but the St. Louis-area grinder cashed in four of the 12 events, winning three of them, including the $350 opener, which smashed the $100K guarantee with a prize pool just shy of $385K. Welko topped a field of 1,283 entries for $37,402. He also won the $200 and $300 bounty tournaments and finished 16th in the $200 six-max event.

Paul Fehlig finished 19th in Event 1 and second in Event 10: $300 pot-limit Omaha-Big O.

MISSISSIPPI

For those of you not headed to the desert for the WSOP, there are fantastic tournaments in the Magnolia State at the Beau Rivage. The first full weekend of every month features a $50K guarantee for $360. Flight A is noon on Friday, Flight B is noon on Saturday and it plays down to a winner on Sunday. The poker room offers discount rates for incoming players.

If a one-day event suits you more, every Friday at noon (excluding the weekend of the $50K guarantee) play for a $5K guarantee on a $130 buy-in.

Every third Saturday of the month at 11 a.m., the Beau features a $10K guarantee. The $200 Little Monster ends in one day and uses a "hybrid big blind ante format."

Monday's 6 p.m. tournament is when the Beau thanks to military members and first-responders. The buy-in is $100 and for every military or first responder ID shown, $20 will be added to the prize pool.

Every Saturday at noon, outside of the big guarantee weekends, there's a $5K guarantee for $150 and it usually generates a pretty massive prize pool. It's the best bargain on the coast for a daily tournament.

Wednesdays are Senior Appreciation Day. For every player 50 or older who plays in the $75 noon tournament, $10 will be added to the prize pool. In the $100, 6 p.m. event on the same day, $20 is added for each senior who enters.

HORSESHOE TUNICA: Don't forget the WSOPC runs until May 5. May 1 is Event 8, the $400 monster stack with a $100K guarantee. May 2 is Event 9, another $400 event but with a $50K guarantee. The $1,700 main event has two starting flights (May 3-4, both at 11 a.m.) and a $500K guarantee. It's a three-day tourney. May 4 at 4 p.m. is the $135 women's event and a $400 event runs at the same time. May 5 has two events: a $250 seniors tourney at 10 a.m. with a $25K guarantee and a $400 doublestack with a $50K guarantee at 2 p.m.

LIBERTO REDEEMS HIMSELF IN MD.

There's nothing quite like improving on history. Justin Liberto, who finished fourth in this same event two years earlier, captured the WPT DeepStacks Main Event at Live Casino and Hotel in Hanover, Md., in March.

Liberto, who lives in the Baltimore area, defeated Noah Shefrin, also of Maryland, on the final hand of the $1,650 event with pocket deuces. Shefrin shoved all-in preflop with A-8 and never improved to earn $81K as runner-up.

Liberto earned $116,363, a trophy and a $3K package to play in the season-ending championship. The tourney drew 571 entries for a $556K prize pool.

In other tournament news, Live hosts the Spring Series of Poker with 24 events May 16-27 and more than $500K in guarantees.

DOVER DOWNS HOTEL & CASINO: Seven no-limit tournaments with $76K in guarantees, including one with a $40K guarantee, are featured over Memorial Day weekend (May 24-27).

The tournaments begin 11:15 a.m. with a $5K-guarantee opener. The $40K is May 25, followed by $15K May 26 and a $10K on Memorial Day.

There also will be guaranteed tournaments May 24-26 at 7:15 p.m., with $1,500 prize pools May 24-25 and a $3K on May 26.

ATLANTIC CITY-PHILADELPHIA

PARX: Semiretired Bronx native Natale Kuey captured the Big Stax $2,500 main event March 4 at the Bensalem, Pa., property, good for $97K. He went into Day 3 short-stacked but emerged with his largest tournament cash of his career.

Matt Kurtz went all-in preflop on the final hand with A-8 and Kuey called with A-J. Kurtz of North Brunswick, Pa., failed to improve and finished second for $61,847.

The next Big Stax series begins May 1 and will have six events, including a WPT DeepStacks $1,500 main event and the usual Big Stax buy-ins of $300, $500 and its $2,500 main event. There will be plenty of satellites to these tourneys, so call for details.

BORGATA: Vinicius "Viny" Lima defeated 1,415 players to win the WPT Borgata Winter Poker Open and $728,430, Lima of Las Vegas also pockets a $15K entry into the season-ending tournament of champions and a watch. Though he won the Borgata Open, Lima, 24, actually captured the title in Las Vegas at the HyperX Esports Arena, which is where the WPT hosts its final tables.

Lima said the crowd in the arena helped him overcome his

MEET PETER BAE

At March's World Series of Poker Circuit stop in Atlantic City, Peter Bae of Queens, N.Y., made his career-first WSOPC cash count. Bae, 32, captured Event 4, the $250 no-limit hold'em re-entry tourney at Harrah's for $12,886, beating Dax Funderburk heads-up, and 261 others before him, for the title.

Bae, who was chipleader for the entire final-table play, is a student, but said he's passionate about poker, playing mostly cash games. With this victory, however, he said he'll play more events.

"I'm going to play the (WSOPC) main event," he said after his victory. "I was going to play the satellite but now I don't have to. I'm just going to buy right in."

And he has a plan for the rest of the money, dedicating the win to his family.

"It feels fantastic," he said. "I did it for my mother. She's the best. And also for my brother, Justin. I'm giving my mother the money." — Christopher Cosenza short-stack status as the final table lasted 236 hands.

"It was the loudest thing I've ever witnessed live," he said. "My friends and family came out and everybody was great. Every hand I won, they were making noise. The hands I wasn't in, they were making noise. It made the whole experience a thousand times better."

But he still had to play well to earn his first WPT crown.

"Step 1 was planning on never going broke today," Lima said after his win. "I was very fortunate to have good energy with me and ran good at good times and when I was all-in, I held up. I just battled and was very fortunate to have won this thing. It's surreal and unbelievable."

Lima had worked in medical sales, but began playing poker full-time a few years ago. While he had two months to prepare for the final table, he instead focused on physical fitness and mental stamina. He attributes that helping him persevere at a final table that lasted about 10 hours.

"I came in with a short-stack, so aside from just a little (chop talk,) there wasn't too much to be focused on," he said. "I just focused more on my health and mental aspects of things so I could be prepared for a long session like today."

Rivers Schenectady in New York hosts the $100K guarantee Capital Region Classic on May 24. There are four Day 1s (May 24-25 at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. each) and the $300 buy-in gets you a 25K stack. Players also have the option to buy in on Day 2 (May 26) for $1,200. Day 2 buy-ins will start with 100K chips. See the ad on the facing page for more information.

TURNING STONE RESORT CASINO: Brian Vollick won the March Mania $50K guarantee. The $26K prize brings his lifetime earnings to $60K. Verona's 32-table room hosts a $75K event for $300 May 16-19. See the ad on the left for more information.

SENECA NIAGARA: Flop a royal flush and get $1K. If you get it on the turn, you'll earn $500 and the river pays $250. The room also features high hands in hold'em, stud and Omaha.

CONNECTICUT

FOXWOODS RESORT CASINO: "I've won a couple of tournaments with this hand. That's why I'm going to call," said Soukha Kachit-tavong as he turned over pocket treys. His opponent, Paul Snead, held pocket deuces. The board ran out clean and with that hand, Soukha won $101K and the Foxwoods Poker Classic in Mashantucket. This marked his third final table and second victory in the series. Kachittovong has dominated the northeast tournament scene the past few years. He has $1.2M-plus in earnings with more than $150K in 2019.

If you missed your chance to play in the Classic, the popular Mega Stack Challenge runs through May 6. The $1,500 championship starts May 4. Day 1 blinds are 40 minutes and players start with 40K chips.

Also, $1,200 satellites to the World Series of Poker's $10K main event run May 26, June 2 and June 9. Roughly 1 in 12 will win a $10K seat and $2K for expenses. Last year, these three tournaments awarded 53 seats.

MOHEGAN SUN: The grand opening of the latest poker room at the Uncasville property featured splash pots and high hands throughout April. High hands continue to run seven days a week in May. Sundays will feature a $230 bounty tournament with 20K stacks and 20-minute blinds.

MASSACHUSETTS

MGM SPRINGFIELD: New England's newest casino has a 23-table poker room, including a high-limit area. The room runs weekly tournaments at 11:15 a.m. and 6:15 p.m., Monday-Thursday and a $5K guarantee $150 green-chip bounty Sundays at 11:15 a.m. All tournaments feature the big-blind ante.

Maine

HOLLYWOOD CASINO BANGOR: The state's lone poker room offers a progressive high hand and a royal-flush jackpot. On Saturdays, there's a $100 tournament with 25K stacks, 20-minute blinds with a $20 add-on after Level 6.

RHODE ISLAND

TWIN RIVER CASINO HOTEL: Just outside of Providence, the state's only live poker room has 23 tables, featuring $1-$2, $2-$5 and $5-$10 NLHE. The casino also recently opened a 136-room hotel. ▲

MLEKODAY GRABS MINN. STATE TITLE

Henry Mlekoday of Minneapolis earned $35,698 after winning the $1,100 Minnesota State Poker Championship Main Event at Canterbury Park in Shakopee, Minn.

When five-handed, players agreed to take $20K each, leaving the remaining prize pool and trophy for first place. Mlekoday held the lead threehanded and won the title a couple of hours later. This is Mlekoday's third largest career cash and brings his Hendon Mob total to $460K.

The main event drew 180 entries, resulting in a $174,600 prize pool.

Joshua Hersch of St. Paul, Minn., took home $15,493 for winning the $350 monster stack. This cash doubled his career earnings as 213 players entered the event for a $61,983 prize pool. The series featured 10 events with $125-$1,100 buy-ins.

RUNNING ACES CASINO: Emanuel Evegan of Minneapolis took home $29K after winning the Pot O' Gold tournament in Columbus. Evegan began Day 2 with the fourth largest stack, but when the final table began, he held about 17 percent of the chips in play. Even more impressive, Evegan won his entry into the event after investing $10 into the weekly freeroll. The $280 event drew 751 entries for a $154,833 prize pool.

CHICAGOLAND

HORSESHOE HAMMOND: Elik Vodovoz outlasted 1,050 entries to win the World Series of Poker Circuit Main Event for $294Kplus. The 72-year-old retired dentist, who won a $220 satellite into the main event, faced an impressive field, including twotime Chicagoland Heartland Poker Tour main-event champ Nick Davidson.

"Frankly, I really like playing poker," said Vodovoz, who is from the Ukraine. "I just have fun playing. My son is also playing and he told me 'You're playing well. Take your time and in the future you will win something.' Well, the future came early." The prize pool was $1.5M-plus.

Scott Bohlman won the heads-up event for $15K-plus and his first gold ring. The poker pro from Homer Glen won his first WSOP bracelet last summer.

HOLLYWOOD AURORA: The $100K HCA Classic is June 30. Sunday qualifying tournaments run until June 23. You can buy in for $120 or earn an entry by playing 15 live hours.

HOLLYWOOD LAWRENCEBURG: Greg Wood topped 555 entries to win the HPT main event for $119K-plus and a $3.5K championship package. This was the third televised final table in a

MEET ERIK SILGMAN

Erik Silgman, 39, began his poker-dealing career at Ho-Chunk Gaming Wisconsin Dells before transferring to Milwaukee's Potawatomi Casino. Silgman, attended University of Wisconsin Green Bay and Baraboo/Sauk County, where he earned his associate's degree.

When and how did you get into poker? I got into poker while trying to supplement income living in downtown Las Vegas in 2005. The first poker book I read was (Theory of Poker) by David Sklansky. I learned that poker has two different ways to look at everything. For me, it's always been about discipline, observation and picking out opponents' flaws. The other is those players who try to gain an edge by annoying people.

So, you play poker in addition to dealing? When I play poker, I feel like I'm doing something I was made to do. Everyone has the same game. Who is a master, who is going to get lost? Unfortunately, I get so excited when I finally do get a chance to play now I end up clowning off money.

What do you like most about poker? I love the competitiveness of poker. I feel like if I were a rookie, I would not survive playing today. It's challenging as a veteran at the competitive levels and my will to win seems higher than ever. I've always felt live poker is the only way to play. It's why I play. I don't feel like online gambling is a good idea. — Chad Holloway row for the St. Charles, Mo., resident.

Dave Gutfreund won the $300 seniors for $6,541 and Joseph Russo won the $200 seniors for $5,155.

Adam Bacon captured the $300 monster stack for $38K-plus. The kickoff event's $174K prize pool crushed the $75K guarantee, as the 685 entries were the second largest for the property.

OHIO-WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

The Great Lakes Poker Open runs May 16-27 at Hollywood Casino in Toledo, Ohio. The series includes a $75K main event for $240 and the Great Lakes Mini Open, which has a $30K guarantee for $85. For more, see the ad on Page 34.

April was huge for tournament players in this region as Rivers Casino Pittsburgh hosted WPT DeepStacks, which ran April 18-28, and the Heartland Poker Tour visited Meadows Racetrack and Casino in Washington, Pa. (April 4-15) and Hollywood Casino Columbus (April 18-29). Look for recaps in next month's issue.

FEDERSPIEL POCKETS NEARLY $87K FOR IOWA WIN

n March 24, Steve Federspiel of Tiffin, Iowa, won $86,949 when he topped the 409-player field at the first of three Mid-States Poker Tour events at Meskwaki Casino in Iowa in 2019.

Joe Walters was runner-up ($53,751) when he jammed all of his chips in the middle but discovered Federspiel's A-J dominated his A-4 and he failed to improve. The MSPT returns here with another $300K guarantee in late July.

"I feel really good, I'm excited," Federspiel said. "I've wanted this for a long time. I love the MSPT, and I'm really excited to win this because there's so many good players at this event. I sucked out a few times, but overall I played pretty decent. I was trying to mix it up, I thought I had a few good reads on some of the players, and I did a few unorthodox plays."

GRAND FALLS CASINO: The MSPT stopped at this Northwest Iowa property for a regional event March 7-10. The $350 main event went to Eric Atchison from Dakota Dunes, S.D. Atchison pocketed $22,457. The MSPT returns in September with a $150K guarantee.

RIVERSIDE CASINO: The 12th annual Poker Challenge runs May 24-26 with a $300 main event.

WSOP SATELLITES: There are two WSOP main-event satellites. The first is at Prairie Meadows Casino on May 19, followed by the Horseshoe Casino in Council Bluffs on May 31.

WISCONSIN

IN MEMORIUM: In early March, Mike "Wisco" Murray died at 37 of a heroin overdose. Murray won more than $1M playing online and was a friend of Poker Hall of Famer Phil Hellmuth.

"I had faith in Mike 'Wisco' Murray," Hellmuth said. "Wisco was a great nickname as he was Wisconsin through-andthrough: nice, smart, loyal and despite his early online poker successes, not too cocky. Wisco was a talented guy and a gentle soul and I had so much faith in him."

PLAYER SCORES: Stoughton's Eddie Blumenthal finished second in the Wynn Classic's $1,600 main event for $160,816 after a three-way deal with Terry Fleischer and Mark loli.

Mike Shin was the last Wisconsinite standing in March's MSPT Meskwaki main event. He finished 12th out of 409 entries for $6,324.

MICHIGAN

GUN LAKE CASINO: Mark Stevens, a pot-limit Omaha regular, won the WSOP main-event freeroll, beating around 80 players for the $15K package. Everyone else at the final table got a piece of an additional $15K. There was a $100 re-entry option.

FIREKEEPERS CASINO: The MSPT returns May 13-16 with a $1M guarantee on its main event with qualifiers and supersatellites running up until the main.

TURTLE CREEK: The poker room is closed after its $10K-per-day runoff of the promotional fund ended March 31.

HERE'S A PRIMER FOR WINNING THE BIG ONE

Tournament season has arrived. In April's column, I stressed the importance of getting ready to play at our best via checklist. Now that we're ready to play and are gung-ho to take down a big one, I have a few ideas on this matter:

• Satellites offer a great chance to earn a shot at a bigger venue in which your bankroll is not comfortable enough to buy in. Ante Up's cover story last month was about a player who turned a $25 satellite win into a $14K win and an Ante Up Poker Tour title.

• In a single-table satellite where one seat is offered, we usually start with a short stack and 15-minute rounds. Get off to a fast start. You must build a stack and take advantage of players who are playing too tight. Often, these satellites are chopped by the last two standing. Make sure to know what your opponent has in mind when it comes to chopping. This could affect your bubble strategy.

• Super-satellites are multitable structures where usually 10-20 seats are awarded and late-stage play can be quite different than a regular event.

Imagine you're in an event that awards 20 seats. You're in bubble territory (26 players remaining). You're dealt A-A and fold. This is the correct play if you've accumulated enough chips to survive the threshold. This is because first place equals 20th place and there's no reason to risk chips. You're playing for a seat. Also, be aware of how many short stacks are in play at all tables. This can make a huge difference in a spot where a small stack pushes and you're in the big blind. In a supersatellite, a fold is in order; in a regular tournament, this situation is an auto-call.

• Players have an urgency to discuss their last hand. "Did I play it right?" We all want to know. It's your job to accrue chips, build a stack and find yourself in a situation where you can endure a beat or lose a flip.

I want to know how you played in the first five rounds or early stage. Understand the blind levels and make it part of your plan to keep up with blinds in terms of your stack-to-blind ratio.

Recently, one of my students lamented an exit and was really down on himself. I asked him to relay three hands and I discovered he played them just right.

In poker, it's easy to get caught up in results and come to a wrong conclusion. Incidentally, instead of giving the game a break, he got back in the saddle and had a great weekend with a first-place finish.

THE DAILY GRINDER

NEVER GO ON TILT AT THE POKER TABLE AGAIN

You could classify poker players into three groups: Some occasionally go on tilt, a few are on tilt often and then there are those who claim never to have been on tilt.

WILLY NEUMAN

The last time I was on tilt was about four years ago and it was pretty ugly. The same guy put bad beats on me, two hands in a row. Runner-runner each time.

Big pots. I don't tell bad beat stories, not only because no one wants to hear them, but because I don't want to remind myself of just about the worst five minutes in my career.

Something good came of the experience, though. I performed a non-exhaustive, unscientific research project and came up with some interesting conclusions.

These statistics have kept me from going on tilt and I hope they'll help you forever avoid this negative and unnecessary state of mind.

In a typical six-hour session, you'll experience two bad beats. Some sessions may include three, or even four bad beats and sometimes there will be none, but the average is two.

So, how does this keep you from going on tilt? It's simple: Expect it. If I know it's inevitable, why get upset about it? And that's what I hope you'll take away from this month's column.

Here's a concrete example of how you can train your mind to prepare for a bad beat. You have the best starting hand, pocket aces. Though you raise, every player calls. At this moment, you need to tell yourself that you're likely to lose. Negative thinking? No. It's realistic thinking. You can hope you'll win, but the statistics tell another story.

You are the most likely one to win, but since you only have about a 31 percent chance of scooping the chips, you'll be victorious only about a third of the time.

So, if you know in advance that you'll lose in this situation twice as much as you'll win, what's the point of getting upset about it? Why go on tilt and have it affect your mind-set for the next several hands?

Here's one final reason to avoid going on tilt: Not only might it affect the way you play for a while, but other players could quite possibly turn it to their advantage. You don't want them to take unnecessary shots at you because you're drawing attention to the fact that you're running bad.

Next time, as you're walking into the poker room, remind yourself that bad beats are just one of the many parts of the game that make it interesting and challenging. Since they're inevitable, there's no reason to get upset about it.

— Willy Neuman divides his poker playing between Hollywood Casino in Aurora, III., and Talking Stick in Scottsdale, Ariz. Email him at editor@ anteupmagazine.com.

WHICH IS BETTER, POKER OR BACCARAT

My poker career started with Adam "Roothlus" Levy at the Bellagio in 2006. He had won an entry into the $15K tournament there and I flew out with him because why not?

PHILBIN

And that's when I saw a well-known poker pro and he was absolutely massive. I'd seen him on TV, like everyone else, sitting. I had no idea that this dude was so big. I pointed him out to my friends saying something along the lines of "Holy crap; he's huge." So everyone's attention was focused on him. He was talking to someone and they were near the craps tables. I heard what he was saying, and it absolutely blew my mind: "Lemme just get $100; I'll get it back to you next week. You know I'm good for it."

This player had won the most poker tournaments in history and he was bumming $100 off of someone.

This completely changed my thoughts on the game and maybe even life, though it didn't completely keep me away from the craps tables. I spent the rest of my young career lecturing everyone I could about how bad it was to go into the pit instead of play poker.

Here's the thing: It's not true. If you're not a winning poker player, you stand a better chance in the pit than in the poker room. It's not really even close. This is why I preach constantly that you need to keep track of your results. If you're not winning, you're just throwing away your money.

The house edge on craps is between .5 percent and 2 percent, depending on where and how you play it.

That means that you'll lose between 50 cents and $2 for every $100 you wager.

This also means if your bankroll is big enough you will win roughly 48 percent of the time.

That number changes if you have a small bankroll, but let's assume risk of ruin is low. That also means in the long run you'll always lose.

If you're a losing player at poker, you'll always lose and you'll have significantly less than 48 percent of your sessions as winners. Think about how many times your local fish stopped playing poker and started playing craps, baccarat or pai gow for a couple of weeks. Then some more savvy players convince them to come back to the game. It's accidental self-preservation.

So I give you a call to action: If you're playing poker, make sure you're a winning player. If you're a winning player, be nice to the fish. Cater to them. Yell at anyone who critiques their play.

Show you hand first even when you don't have to. If you don't, you may soon find their discretionary income being donated to the local casino conglomerate rather than your game's ecosystem, and they're strictly in a better situation for doing it. - Brent Philbin is a poker pro who lives in South Florida. TOURNAMENT TRAIL

et's just say over the years that I've seen a lot of good and bad examples of sportsmanship and competition. One of the things that drives me nuts is how many players seem to completely misunderstand what your competitive goals are when you're playing in a multitable tournament and a short stack is all-in with action left remaining.

I will attempt to make this as clear as possible: Asking someone if they want to check it down vs. the all-in player is collusion and should not be tolerated.

Many tournament directors are too afraid to teach lessons here, unfortunately, so I have to write about it.

There are plenty of satellite, ICM and bubble situations where the correct Game Theory Optimal approach to the game includes checking it down and being willing to embrace the variance of showdown.

The main problem I have is that I see people trying to do this in mid to early stages of the tournament. If you're playing a one-day tournament, let's just say for example it usually lasts 10 hours.

If you're considering checking it down to eliminate a player before roughly 15-20 percent of the field remains (assuming 10 percent gets paid), you're approaching this situation poorly.

Near the bubble and near the money, you can gain financial equity if the chips in the main pot go into your stack or the stack of another player that eliminated someone.

If the main pot is 10K with four-way action and the starting stack was 20K and average stack is 35K, then those 10K chips in the main pot hurt your equity when they go into any stack but yours.

The equity of your stack reduces significantly less if the allin player doubles up or if he gets knocked out than if the chips end up in another seat other than yours and the short stack gets eliminated. This is a long, drawn out way to remind you that isolating all-in players in mid to early stages of a tournament is not only desirable, but really profitable.

You'll have to face a lot of social pressures from people who think they understand the game better than you do. Believe me, I've been lectured a lot, but understanding the range of outcomes for your poker game will put you at a significant advantage.

REPEAT POKER THIEF KILLED

Two years after sticking up the cage in Bellagio's poker room, Michael Cohen — not that one — robbed the same cage again, but this time, he was shot dead by police.

SCOTT SAID: To his somewhat credit, he was able to pull off two robberies in a casino, which we've always said is the stupidest thing to do unless you are George Clooney. There were people who said you couldn't even tell it was being robbed, so at least it wasn't scary in the poker room. Now, obviously when he gets outside, he shot one of the cops and they shot back and shot him in the head. Geez, I can't even imagine witnessing this.

CHRIS SAID: This is the type of stuff when you are watching movies that you are, "Eh, that doesn't happen." But it does happen. Stuff like this does happen. It's just that it is few and far between, but when it does happen, this is right out of a movie here.

22-Player Chop

David Ormesher had the line of the month on the Ante Up Fans Facebook page when he posted a screenshot from the South Point poker room in Las Vegas, congratulating players on the first 22-player chop in room history. Ormesher: "Getting a table to agree on a chop is one thing ... but getting 22 poker players to agree on anything is a miracle." CHRIS SAID: To me, that's the record that has come across my news feed or my screen. The most I've seen is 18 players. This is hard to do, the logistics of it all. Even on a break, to wrangle up 22 people all in one spot, that's not easy.

SCOTT SAID: I've been in a couple two-table chop discussions, which I think is utterly ridiculous, and I've seen how hard it is. But now you're talking three tables. That's just amazing.

FILMING HOLE CARDS IN CASH GAMES?

A recent Twitter debate surrounded whether meet-up groups and vloggers should be able to film cash games, including hole cards, in casinos. Is this another "casinos need to roll with technological advances" debate or not?

CHRIS SAID: I think this is a different kind of question than someone having their cell phone at the table. Everyone has that. Not everyone has to have a camera to film their hole cards.

SCOTT SAID: There's a difference between if you bring in three tables of people to have fun and everyone there is implicitly agreeing to doing whatever it is that group is doing, including filming. So if you're not a part of this group, the real concern comes in with people there expecting privacy.

FLIP COSTS FINE AND TWO JOBS

A $42K flip at the end of of a cash session between two pro players two years ago has cost SugarHouse Casino in Philadelphia a $30K fine and two of the casino's supervisors their jobs.

SCOTT SAID: I don't think regulators understood what happened here. It's not as if they put 10-card stud on the Bravo system and 10 players sat down and played this game. It was just two pros doing what they do everywhere they go. I could argue this a whole lot of ways. Certainly this will be a wake-up call to other casinos to say even if it is just one hand, you can't do that. So, to that extent, I think it's a good thing that it happened because it'll keep other problems from happening.

CHRIS SAID: I think there should have been a wrist slap here instead. I find it interesting that the fine is far less than what the flip was for.
